

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF DALLAS

January 29, 1926

To The Member State Bank Addressed:

We are advised by the Federal Reserve Board that adequate information regarding dividends declared by state bank and trust company members is contained in the semi-annual reports of earnings and dividends, and for that reason reports on Form 107a, "Special Notification of Dividend Declared" by state bank and trust company members, serve no useful purpose and may well be dispensed with.

It will, therefore, be unnecessary for you to submit to us, in the future, any further reports on Form 107a. You will, of course, continue to render us your semi-annual reports of earnings and dividends, (Form 107) as usual.

Yours very truly,
