Series of 1927

January 19, 1927.

To all Incorporated Banks in the Eleventh Federal Reserve District :

The following telegram has been received from the UNITED STATES VETERANS' BUREAU:

“Approximately 100,000 Adjusted Service Certificates issued without ‘A’ number. This does not affect their validity in any way. Number in lower left hand corner should be used for identifying certificates where a number is not given.”

This is for your information.

Yours very truly,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, likely of the Governor, written in black ink. The signature is fluid and somewhat stylized, with a long, sweeping tail that extends downwards and to the right.
