

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF DALLAS

Dallas, Texas, July 2, 1928.

To the Member Banks of the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas:

In connection with President Woodson's notice of the second annual meeting of the Stockholders' Association, the Directors and Officers of the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas extend to the representatives of the member banks who will attend the meeting a cordial invitation to be the guests of the Bank at a luncheon in the Baker Hotel at one p. m. July 12, 1928. In order that ample provision may be made for our guests, prompt return of the enclosed card indicating the names and number of representatives from each member bank contemplating attendance will be appreciated.

In order to assist the officers of the Stockholders' Association having the meeting in charge, desks will be placed in our front lobby with a sufficient number of typists assigned to rapidly register the visitors and issue their credential badges. Those attending may, therefore, come immediately to the Federal Reserve Bank, one block South of the Baker Hotel either on arrival in the afternoon of the day before or between the hours of eight and ten a. m. on July 12, to register.

Our Directors and Officers will constitute a reception committee at the bank and those desiring to be shown through the building and visit with us may do so at any hour during July 11 and 12.

We shall also be glad to make hotel reservations for those who request us by special letter or telegram to do so. We suggest that type of accommodations desired, as well as hotel preference, if any, be indicated.

Yours very truly,

Chairman Board of Directors

Governor.
