

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF DALLAS

April 25, 1930.

To the Member Bank Addressed:

Please refer to time schedule which is a part of Circular No. 12, dated October 30, 1928. On this schedule it is stated that if any Federal reserve bank or branch should adopt daylight saving time, the time shown on schedule would automatically be advanced one hour for such length of time as the daylight saving plan was observed.

For your information we wish to advise that the cities shown below will observe daylight saving time for the period indicated, and our time limit for the acceptance of wire transfers for completion on date of receipt to such Federal reserve banks and branches will be one hour earlier than time shown on our schedule.
