TEXAS CENTENNIAL EXPOSITION

To the Bank Addressed:

In view of the approaching opening of the Texas Centennial Exposition on June 6, 1936, it has occurred to us that some of your officers, directors or employees will probably visit the central exposition at Dallas, and I therefore extend to such representatives of your bank a cordial invitation to visit the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas during their stay in this city. We shall be prepared, during banking hours of any business day, to conduct visitors through our building and thus give them an opportunity to see our various departments in operation.

Our branch offices at Houston, San Antonio and El Paso will also be glad to extend similar courtesies to Centennial visitors in those cities.

Please understand that this invitation applies to the clerical members of your staff as well as to your officers and directors.

Yours very truly,

B. A. McKINNEY,
President
