

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF DALLAS

FISCAL AGENT OF THE UNITED STATES

Dallas, Texas, July 8, 1941

To All Banking Institutions, and Others Concerned, in the Eleventh Federal Reserve District:

There is enclosed a copy of the First Amendment, dated June 26, 1941, to Treasury Department Circular No. 530, Fourth Revision, dated April 15, 1941, "Regulations Governing United States Savings Bonds."

The two provisos in Section 315.2, paragraph (c) (2), have been eliminated, giving greater latitude in the purchases of Defense Savings Bonds of Series F and Series G for trust estates.

Section 315.13, paragraph (c) (3), has been amended to also provide for payment or reissue in the name of a former ward upon his own request when supported by satisfactory proof that disability has been removed.

Please file for ready reference with Treasury Department Circular No. 530, Fourth Revision, which was mailed to you with our general letter of May 2, 1941.

Yours very truly,

R. R. GILBERT

President

REGULATIONS GOVERNING UNITED STATES SAVINGS BONDS

1941
First Amendment to Department Circular No. 530
Fourth Revision
Fiscal Service
Bureau of the Public Debt

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,
Washington, June 26, 1941.

TO OWNERS OF UNITED STATES SAVINGS BONDS, AND OTHERS CONCERNED:

Sections 315.2 (c) (2), first sentence, and 315.13 (c) (3) of Department Circular No. 530, Fourth Revision, dated April 15, 1941, are hereby revised to read as follows:

*“Section 315.2 (c) (2).—*In the names of fiduciaries of a single duly constituted and wholly independent trust estate considered as an entity in one of the forms set forth in the following subparagraphs.”

*“Section 315.13 (c) (3). Upon termination of guardianship estate.—*A savings bond registered in the name of a guardian or similar legal representative of the estate of a minor or incompetent, if the estate is terminated during the ward’s lifetime, will be reissued in the name of the former ward upon the representative’s request and certification that the former ward is entitled and has agreed to reissue in his name, or will be paid to or reissued in the name of the former ward upon his own request, supported in either case by satisfactory proof that his disability has been removed. Certification by the representative that a former minor has attained his majority, or that the legal disability of a female ward has been removed by marriage, if the State law so provides, will ordinarily be accepted as sufficient, but if the disability is removed by court order a duly certified copy of the order will be necessary. Upon the death of the ward a bond registered in the name of his guardian or similar representative will be reissued in accordance with the provisions of Section 315.16 as though it were registered in the name of the ward alone.”

HENRY MORGENTHAU, Jr.,
Secretary of the Treasury.
