OF DALLAS

Dallas, Texas, January 5, 1942

To the Newspaper Addressed:

We appreciate the cooperation of the newspapers of this district in giving public notice in their columns to the registration requirements of Regulation W relating to instalment credit. Many persons and organizations that were required to register had apparently overlooked doing so, and the newspaper publicity on the subject was a timely reminder. The results have been gratifying, and we feel that the newspapers have rendered a distinct public service in this connection.

Yours very truly,
