

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF DALLAS

Dallas, Texas, June 13, 1942

VICTORY FUND COMMITTEE

To All Banking Institutions, and Others Concerned, in the Eleventh Federal Reserve District:

Mr. Judson S. James, Jr., of Dallas, has been appointed to serve as Executive Manager of the Victory Fund Committee for the Eleventh Federal Reserve District and his appointment has been approved by the Secretary of the Treasury.

Mr. James is well known in investment and financial circles, having been engaged in the securities business for the past seventeen years. He is now serving as Chairman of the Texas group of the Investment Bankers Association of America. Mr. James, who is President of James, Stayart and Davis, Inc., of Dallas, securities dealers, has been granted a leave of absence by his company for the duration in order that he may devote his entire time to the work of the Committee. In his new position, Mr. James will have executive responsibility, under the direction of the Victory Fund Committee, for developing and guiding an aggressive campaign in this district for the sale of Government securities, other than War Savings Bonds, as an aid to the United States Treasury in its war financing program. He will have an office in the building of the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas.

Yours very truly,

R. R. GILBERT, Chairman
Victory Fund Committee
