

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK
OF DALLAS

Dallas, Texas, September 12, 1942

To the Member Banks of the Eleventh Federal Reserve District:

There is enclosed a Supplement to Regulation D adopted by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, which covers the reduction of reserve requirements of member banks in central reserve cities to 22 per cent from the existing rate of 24 per cent, effective at the opening of business on September 14, 1942.

While the reduction does not affect member banks in this district, they are being advised in regard thereto as a matter of information. The enclosed supplement should be inserted in the ring binder containing current bulletins of this bank and the regulations of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

Yours very truly,

R. R. GILBERT

President

BOARD OF GOVERNORS OF THE FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM

SUPPLEMENT TO REGULATION D

Effective as to each member bank at the opening of business on September 14, 1942

Reserves required to be maintained by member banks with Federal Reserve banks

Pursuant to the provisions of section 19 of the Federal Reserve Act and section 2(a) of its Regulation D, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System hereby prescribes the following reserve balances which each member bank of the Federal Reserve System is required to maintain on deposit with the Federal Reserve bank of its district :

6 per cent of its time deposits plus—

14 per cent of its net demand deposits if not in a reserve or central reserve city ;

20 per cent of its net demand deposits if in a reserve city, except as to any bank located in an outlying district of a reserve city or in territory added to such city by the extension of the city's corporate limits, which, by the affirmative vote of five members of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, is permitted to maintain 14 per cent reserves against its net demand deposits ;

22 per cent of its net demand deposits if located in a central reserve city, except as to any bank located in an outlying district of a central reserve city or in territory added to such city by the extension of the city's corporate limits, which, by the affirmative vote of five members of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, is permitted to maintain 14 per cent or 20 per cent reserves against its net demand deposits.

The supplements to Regulation D which have previously been issued are hereby revoked and superseded.
