IMPORTANT INFORMATION RELATING TO WAR SAVINGS STAMPS

To Qualified Agents for the Issuance of War Savings Bonds, Series E:

We have been advised by the Treasury Department that on September 30, 1942, the liability for the outstanding War Savings Stamps was transferred from the Postal Savings System to the Treasury, as a public debt obligation, pursuant to Section 5 of the Public Debt Act of 1942. The transfer involves no change in the handling of transactions in the stamps by the Postal Service. Any agents receiving such stamps in payment for Series E bonds should redeem the stamps for cash as heretofore, at post offices, or, where this is not feasible, they may forward the stamps to this bank or to one of its branches located at El Paso, Houston, and San Antonio, at their own risk and expense, for credit.

Yours very truly,

R. R. GILBERT

President
