

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF DALLAS

FISCAL AGENT OF THE UNITED STATES

Dallas, Texas, November 10, 1944

To Qualified Issuing Agents of War Savings Bonds, Series E:

There is enclosed the text of a message which Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau wishes to be delivered to all purchasers of Series E War Savings bonds during the Sixth War Loan drive. The Treasury has requested that issuing agents deliver a copy of the message to the purchaser of each Series E bond issued by them during the drive, whether delivery is made by mail or over the counter, and that they continue the procedure after the drive until the supply is exhausted.

An adequate supply of the pieces will be forwarded to each issuing agent upon return of the enclosed postal card showing an estimate of the number of bonds the agent expects to issue during the Sixth War Loan drive.

It will be greatly appreciated if issuing agents in this district will give the Treasury their full support and cooperation in this appeal to owners to hold their bonds and not redeem them except to meet emergencies.

Yours very truly,

R. R. GILBERT

President

When you pay $75 for a $100 bond,
this is what happens:

- ★ After 2 Years It's Worth $76.50
- ★ After 4 Years It's Worth $80.00
- ★ After 6 Years It's Worth $84.00
- ★ After 8 Years It's Worth $92.00
- ★ -In 10 Years It's Worth $100.00

THIS BOND IS YOUR SHARE IN VICTORY

★ This War Bond is evidence of your determination to back our fighting men for an early victory.

It also represents your financial security and your postwar prosperity. Don't cash this bond except in an emergency.

Before you cash this bond, ask yourself: "Is the emergency so great that I must reduce my support and withdraw these dollars from the battle to win the war—and the peace?"

You gain and your country gains when this bond is not cashed before maturity.

Henry Morgenthau Jr.

SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY
