

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF DALLAS

FISCAL AGENT OF THE UNITED STATES

Dallas, Texas, June 25, 1945

SEVENTH WAR LOAN DRIVE
CREDITS FOR SALES OF SERIES E, F AND G SAVINGS BONDS AND SERIES C SAVINGS NOTES

To All Banking Institutions, and Others Concerned, in the Eleventh Federal Reserve District:

In this bank's circular letter of June 19, 1945, and in previous circulars pertaining to the Seventh War Loan Drive, it was stated that reports and remittances covering sales of Series E savings bonds and all applications for Series F and Series G savings bonds and Series C savings notes received and processed through this bank or one of its branches on or before July 7, 1945, would be included in the final figures for the drive.

The Treasury Department now advises that, in order to afford an opportunity for credit to the Seventh War Loan Drive of all sales of savings bonds completed by issuing agents on or before July 7, remittances and stubs covering Series E bond sales received by this bank or appropriate branch, either by mail or personal delivery on July 9, 1945, will be included in the final drive figures. If reports are received by personal delivery, issuance of Series E bonds must have been completed by July 7, or if received by mail, they must be postmarked not later than July 7.

The Seventh War Loan will also be credited with sales of Series F and Series G savings bonds and Series C savings notes if payment is made by credit to War Loan Deposit Accounts on or before July 7, and advices and applications are received at this bank or appropriate branch by July 9.

In order to facilitate the work of this bank and its branches and to permit proper statistical credits for sales of savings bonds and savings notes, it is urged that all applications for Series F and Series G savings bonds and Series C savings notes and all reports and remittances covering sales of Series E savings bonds by issuing agents be dispatched to reach this bank or appropriate branch as early as possible, and in no event later than the close of business July 9.

Your cooperation will be greatly appreciated.

Yours very truly,

R. R. GILBERT

President
