

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF DALLAS

FISCAL AGENT OF THE UNITED STATES

Dallas, Texas, September 25, 1945

VICTORY LOAN SYMBOL

To All Qualified Issuing Agents in the Eleventh Federal Reserve District:

The War Finance Division of the Treasury Department and the various State War Finance Committees have shown a great deal of interest in the production of a distinctive stamp or symbol to be used in connection with the issuance of United States Savings Bonds of Series E during the forthcoming Victory Loan Drive.

A stamp symbolic of the loan, a reproduction of which is shown above, has been prescribed by the Treasury Department for such use and may be applied on the face of each bond between the inscription and the issuing agent's dating stamp, extending not higher than the top of the circle provided for the validating stamp nor lower than the top of the serial number.

Hand rubber stamps in the exact size illustrated will be furnished at the expense of the Treasury Department to all issuing agents desiring to use them. Requests should be forwarded to the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas, using the enclosed post card.

If an issuing agent so desires, it may prepare at its own expense an issuing agent's rubber dating stamp bearing the legend "Victory Loan" in addition to the prescribed data, provided the stamp does not exceed authorized dimensions ($1\frac{1}{8}$ x $1\frac{1}{8}$) by more than $\frac{1}{8}$ inch.

Yours very truly,

R. R. GILBERT

President
