BOND SALES PLACARD

To All Qualified Issuing Agents in the Eleventh Federal Reserve District:

The Treasury Department has designed a placard for display by issuing agents of savings bonds at each point of sale within the agencies and at any of their branches. A supply of the placard is enclosed and additional copies will be furnished upon request.

It is particularly desirable that the placards be displayed during the forthcoming fall savings bond promotional campaign, November 11 to December 7; however, the Treasury desires that they remain on display permanently unless another is substituted at some later date. This bank will appreciate the cooperation of each issuing agent in maintaining the display.

Yours very truly,

R. R. GILBERT
