FEDERAL RESERVE BANK

OF DALLAS

Dallas, Texas, March 3, 1948

To the Member Banks in the Eleventh Federal Reserve District:

On December 19, 1947, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System adopted a rule (published in the Federal Register for December 24, 1947), effective March 1, 1948, for classifying central reserve cities and reserve cities.

The Board has announced that under the application of the rule no changes were made in central reserve city designations, and that the following changes were made in reserve city designations effective March 1, 1948: The city of National City (National Stock Yards), Illinois, was designated as a reserve city. The designation of the following cities as reserve cities was terminated: Grand Rapids, Michigan; Ogden, Utah; and Spokane, Washington.

No changes were made in the designation of any of the reserve cities situated within the Eleventh Federal Reserve District.

Yours very truly,

R. R. Silbert
President
