

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK
OF DALLAS

Dallas, Texas, March 3, 1949

CONSUMER INSTALMENT CREDIT
AMENDMENT NO. 3 TO REGULATION W

To the Registrant Addressed and Others Concerned:

There is quoted below a press statement issued by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System for release today in connection with Amendment No. 3 to Regulation W, effective March 7, 1949.

“The Board of Governors announced today modification of Regulation W, effective next Monday, March 7, making the maximum maturity uniformly 21 months, instead of 15 to 18 months, on all extensions of Consumer Instalment Credit, and reducing down payments on furniture, appliances, etc., from 20 per cent to 15 per cent, while retaining the $33\frac{1}{3}$ per cent down payment on automobiles.

“This modification is based on continuous study of the operations of the regulation since it was reinstated last September, and on the experience of Federal Reserve Banks and their Branches in its administration in the field.

“In recommending last summer that Congress authorize reinstatement of the regulation, the Board stated that the authority would be used flexibly and that the Board would be ready at all times to tighten or relax the terms in accordance with the objectives of the authority and with a view to sound credit conditions. The amendment also contains two minor modifications of a technical nature.”

The text of the amendment is printed on the reverse side.

Yours very truly,

R. R. GILBERT

President
