

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF DALLAS
DALLAS 13, TEXAS

July 1, 1950

To All Banks of the Eleventh Federal Reserve District:

This is to advise that the Bastrop National Bank, Bastrop, Louisiana, opened for business today as a conversion of the Bastrop Bank & Trust Co., Bastrop, Louisiana, which was a member of the Federal Reserve System.

The bank has capital of $100,000, surplus of $100,000, undivided profits of $58,000, and assets of approximately $6,000,000.

Its officers and directors are as follows:

OFFICERS

George T. Madison, Chairman of the Board
H. Webb Madison, President
W. L. Matison, Vice President and Cashier
Sampson Snyder, Vice President
Richard Revels, Assistant Cashier
W. E. Stevenson, Assistant Cashier

DIRECTORS

George H. Goodwin	W.L.Mattison
S. Alvin Leopold	J. O. McConathy
George T. Madison	K. E. McDonald
H. Webb Madison	F. P. Robinson
James Madison	Sampson Snyder

Yours very truly,

R. R. GILBERT

President