

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF DALLAS

FISCAL AGENT OF THE UNITED STATES

Dallas, Texas, November 28, 1950

FINAL PERIOD OF SPECIAL OFFERING OF SERIES F AND SERIES G SAVINGS BONDS

To All Banking Institutions, and Others Concerned, in the Eleventh Federal Reserve District:

Your attention is directed to the announcements made in this bank's circular letters dated August 19 and September 18, 1950, regarding the special offering of Series F and Series G Savings Bonds to certain classes of institutional investors and certain commercial and industrial banks. Under the terms of this special offering, institutional investors of the classes named are permitted to purchase up to $1,000,000 in excess of the existing limitation of $100,000 at issue price for the year 1950, and eligible commercial and industrial banks up to an aggregate of $100,000 at issue price during the periods—

October 2 through October 10, 1950, inclusive,

November 1 through November 10, 1950, inclusive,
and

December 1 through December 11, 1950, inclusive.

The subscription books will reopen December 1 for the final period to those eligible institutions which have not purchased the amount desired within the prescribed limitation during the October and November periods.

Any applications from eligible subscribers received by a Federal Reserve bank or branch, or the Treasury Department, from December 1, through December 11, 1950, including any mail applications postmarked up to midnight December 11, will be accepted and processed under this special offering.
