FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF DALLAS

FISCAL AGENT OF THE UNITED STATES

Dallas, Texas, May 8, 1952

To All Issuing Agents and Others Concerned, in the Eleventh Federal Reserve District:

There is enclosed for your use a small supply of Form FA 807, Application for United States Savings Bonds of Series J, and Form FA 808, Application for United States Savings Bonds of Series K, which bonds are being issued instead of Savings Bonds of Series F and Series G, respectively. New application forms have been printed as a one piece form. You may use a copy for your file, also a separate copy may be furnished each customer. Any Series F and G application forms on hand should be destroyed.

Also enclosed are a few Forms FA 811, Application for exchange of matured Savings Bonds of Series E for bonds of Series K.

Application forms for Savings Bonds of Series H, Form FA 810, will be furnished prior to June 1, the date those bonds will be placed on sale. The application forms for Savings Bonds of Series E will be revised to reflect the new denomination as soon as the present inventory is exhausted.

If you will complete and return the attachment, we shall be glad to furnish additional supplies of these forms.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Definition of the term "Owner."

The term "owner" as used in the regulations includes registered owners, coowners, surviving beneficiaries, next of kin and legatees of a deceased owner, and persons who have acquired bonds pursuant to judicial proceedings against the owner, except that judgment creditors, trustees in bankruptcy and receivers of insolvents' estates will have the right only to payment of bonds of Series E in accordance with the regulations governing United States Savings Bonds.

2. Series E bonds Eligible.

Any matured Series E Savings Bonds may be presented to a Federal Reserve Bank or Branch for exchange for Series K Savings Bonds in multiples of $500 not later than two calendar months following the month of maturity; or, if several matured bonds are accumulated to make up the authorized denominational amount of the exchange ($500, $1,000, $5,000, $10,000 or $100,000), they must bear issue dates within a period of not more than 12 consecutive calendar months, and they must be presented for exchange not later than two calendar months after the month of maturity of the last bond included in the group. When bonds submitted are of various issue dates, the Series K bond issued will be given an average dating.

3. Elimination of Coowner or Beneficiary.

The name of any coowner or beneficiary inscribed on Series E bonds submitted for exchange for bonds of Series K may be eliminated from the Series K bonds at the time of exchange without consent of the person whose name is to be eliminated.

4. Request for Payment.

The request for payment on the back of matured bonds submitted for exchange should be signed by the owner and certified by an officer authorized to witness requests for payment of United States Savings Bonds.

If partial redemption or reissue of a portion of a matured Series E bond is desired and the remainder exchanged for a Series K bond, the request for redemption must be appropriately amended. As an example, if the owner of a $1,000 matured Series E bond wishes to redeem that bond to the extent of $200, to reissue the bond to the extent of $300, and to exchange the remaining $500 for a Series K bond, the first line of the request for payment on the bond should be amended to read: "I am the owner of this bond and hereby request redemption to the extent of $200; reissue to the extent of $300; and exchange for a Series K bond to the extent of $500," in lieu of the word "payment." The request should then be signed and certified in the customary manner.

No cash will be accepted in connection with exchange of matured Series E bonds for bonds of Series K.
