ALLOTMENT OF 2 $\frac{3}{8}$ PERCENT TREASURY BONDS OF 1958

To All Banking Institutions, and Others Concerned, in the Eleventh Federal Reserve District:

The following statement, giving subscriptions received and the basis of allotment for the current offering of Treasury Bonds of 1958, was issued today by the Treasury Department:

"Secretary of the Treasury Snyder announced today that the cash offering of 2 $\frac{3}{8}$  percent Treasury Bonds of 1958, on which the books were opened for subscription on Monday, June 16, was oversubscribed by more than three times. Subscriptions from nonbank investors alone exceeded the amount of the offering, which was \$3 $\frac{1}{2}$  billion, or thereabouts; and were so large that the total allotment had to be expanded in order to provide any minimum allotment to commercial banks.

"Total subscriptions received aggregated approximately $11,695,000,000. Subscriptions from nonbank investors totaled $3,642,000,000. In accordance with the announcement of the offering, these subscriptions will be allotted in full, and commercial banks will be allotted up to $100,000 each. The total of the new issue will approximate $4,249,000,000, divided as follows:
