

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF DALLAS
DALLAS, TEXAS

June 1, 1959

To All Banks of the Eleventh Federal Reserve District:

This is to advise that the First National Bank of Kerrville, Kerrville, Texas, a member bank located in the territory served by the San Antonio Branch of the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas, opened for business today as a conversion of the First State Bank of Kerrville, Kerrville, Texas.

The bank has capital of $150,000, surplus of $200,000 and undivided profits and reserves of approximately $125,000.

Its officers and directors are as follows:

OFFICERS

Riley Peters, President
A. J. Lochte, Vice President
L. L. Ottinger, Cashier
H. H. Wied, Assistant Cashier
A. B. Miller, Jr., Assistant Cashier

DIRECTORS

A. J. Lochte	Riley Peters
L. L. Ottinger	H. H. Wied
Donald B. Peters

Yours very truly,

Watrous H. Irons
President