

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF DALLAS
DALLAS, TEXAS

July 14, 1959

To the Bank Addressed:

We have been advised that the Buckner State Bank, Dallas, Texas, a newly organized, insured, nonmember bank located in the territory served by the head office of the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas, will open for business July 15, 1959. The bank has notified us that payment will be made at par for checks drawn on it.

Checks drawn on that bank will be handled by us on an immediate credit basis and will be collected through the Dallas Clearing House Association. The combined A.B.A. transit number and routing symbol of the new bank is  $\frac{32-95}{1110}$ .

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF DALLAS