SECTION 212.1—PROHIBITIONS

Under section 8 of the Clayton Act, except as stated in §212.2.

(a) Directors, officers, and employees of member banks.—No person who is a director, officer, or employee of a member bank of the Federal Reserve System can legally be at the same time a director, officer, or employee of any other bank, banking association, savings bank, or trust company organized under the National Bank Act or organized under the laws of any State or of the District of Columbia;

(b) Private bankers.—No private banker<sup>2</sup> can legally be at the same time a director, officer, or employee of any bank, banking association, savings bank, or trust company organized under the National Bank Act or organized under the laws of any State or of the District of Columbia.

SECTION 212.2—EXCEPTIONS

The provisions of section 8 of the Clayton Act:

* The text corresponds to the Code of Federal Regulations, Title 12, Chapter II, Part 212; cited as 12 CFR 212.

<sup>1</sup> Section 32 of the Banking Act of 1933 (49 Stat. 709; 12 U.S.C. 78) is applicable in certain circumstances to interlocking relationships between member banks and underwriters and dealers in securities. See Part 218.

Section 17 (c) of the Public Utility Act of 1935 (49 Stat. 831; 15 U.S.C. 79g (c)) is applicable in certain circumstances to interlocking relationships between banks and public utility companies and public utility holding companies. Inquiries regarding this section should be addressed to the Securities and Exchange Commission and not to the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

Section 305 (b) of the Federal Power Act (49 Stat. 856; 16 U.S.C. 825d (b)) is applicable in certain circumstances to interlocking relationships between public utility companies and banks which are authorized by law to underwrite or participate in the marketing of securities of a public utility. Inquiries regarding this section should be addressed to the Federal Power Commission and not to the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

<sup>2</sup> The term "private banker" means an unincorporated individual engaged in the banking business or a member of an unincorporated firm engaged in such business.

(b) Banks not organized under National Bank Act, State law, or laws of District of Columbia.—Do not prohibit a private banker or a director, officer, or employee of a member bank of the Federal Reserve System from being at the same time a director, officer, or employee of any number of other banking institutions not organized under the National Bank Act or under the laws of any State or of the District of Columbia<sup>3</sup>;

(c) Relationships lawfully existing on August 23, 1935.—Do not prohibit, until February 1, 1939, any interlocking relationship involving a member bank, which was in existence on August 23, 1935, the date of the enactment of the Banking Act of 1935, and which, at that time, was lawful under the Clayton Act, either (1) because it was authorized by a permit<sup>4</sup> then in effect<sup>5</sup> or (2) because it was otherwise not subject to the prohibitions of the Clayton Act<sup>6</sup>;

(d) Exceptions applicable to directors, officers, and employees of member banks.—Do not prohibit a director, officer, or employee of a member bank of the Federal Reserve System from being at the same time a director, officer, or employee of any number of the following:

(1) Banks, banking associations, savings banks, or trust companies, more than 90 per cent of the stock of which is owned directly or indirectly by the United States or by any corporation of which the United States directly or indirectly owns more than 90 per cent of the stock;

<sup>3</sup>In other words, the provisions of section 8 of the Clayton Act do not prohibit a private banker or a director, officer, or employee of a member bank of the Federal Reserve System from being at the same time a director, officer, or employee of any number of the following:

(a) Joint Stock Land banks, Federal Land banks, Federal Reserve banks, Federal Intermediate Credit banks, The Central Bank for Cooperatives, Federal Home Loan banks, foreign banking corporations organized under section 25 (a) of the Federal Reserve Act (41 Stat. 378, as amended; 12 U.S.C. 611-631) and other institutions organized under laws of the United States other than the National Bank Act;

(b) Banking institutions organized under the laws of territories, dependencies, or insular possessions of the United States, such as Puerto Rico or the Canal Zone, and not organized under the National Bank Act; and

(c) Banking institutions organized under the laws of foreign countries.

Federal Savings and Loan Associations and Federal Credit Unions are not organized under the National Bank Act or under the laws of any State or of the District of Columbia, and therefore are excepted on that ground irrespective of whether they are "banks" or "banking associations" within the meaning of the statute.

<sup>4</sup>Relationships which were lawful on August 23, 1935, because authorized by a permit then in effect were lawful within the meaning of this exception irrespective of whether the permittee was then also serving in other relationships which were within the prohibitions of the Clayton Act but which were not authorized by such permit.

<sup>5</sup>It is immaterial whether or not such permit contained a provision limiting its duration, provided it was in effect on August 23, 1935.

<sup>6</sup>The provisions of the Clayton Act regarding interlocking bank directorates in effect prior to August 23, 1935, are analyzed in Regulation L, Series of 1933, which was published in the Federal Reserve Bulletin for November 1933, page 711.

(2) Banks, banking associations, savings banks, or trust companies which have been placed formally in liquidation or which are in the hands of receivers, conservators, or other officials exercising similar functions;

(3) Corporations principally engaged in international or foreign banking or banking in a dependency or insular possession of the United States which have entered into agreements with the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System pursuant to section 25 of the Federal Reserve Act (39 Stat. 755, 41 Stat. 285, 286; 12 U.S.C. 601-605);

(4) Banks, banking associations, savings banks, or trust companies, more than 50 per cent of the common stock of which is owned directly or indirectly<sup>7</sup> by persons who own directly or indirectly<sup>7</sup> more than 50 per cent of the common stock of such member bank;

(5) Banks, banking associations, savings banks, or trust companies not located and having no branch in the same city, town, or village as that in which such member bank or any branch thereof is located, or in any city, town, or village contiguous or adjacent thereto<sup>8</sup>;

(6) Banks, banking associations, savings banks, or trust companies not engaged in a class or classes of business<sup>9</sup> in which such member bank is engaged;

(7) Mutual savings banks having no capital stock;

(e) Exceptions applicable to private bankers.—Do not prohibit a private banker from being at the same time a member of any number of firms of private bankers, or from being at the same time a director, officer, or employee of any number of the following:

<sup>7</sup>The following are clear illustrations of indirect ownership: (1) where more than 50 per cent of the stock of one bank is owned by the other bank; (2) where more than 50 per cent of the stock of one bank is held in trust for the shareholders of the other bank; and (3) where more than 50 per cent of the stock of one bank is owned by a corporation all the stock of which is owned by the shareholders of the other bank.

<sup>8</sup>The Board has interpreted the term "contiguous" as referring to cities, towns, and villages whose corporate limits touch or coincide at some point, and has interpreted the word "adjacent" as referring to cities, towns, and villages which, although not actually "contiguous" within the above interpretation of that word, are located in such close proximity and are so readily accessible to each other as to be in practical effect a single city, town, or village, as for example, cities, towns, or villages separated only by a water-course, or a suburb of a city separated from that city by an intervening suburb.

<sup>9</sup>The phrase "class or classes of business" refers to the various types of business engaged in by such institutions involving relationships with customers, such as (1) receiving commercial deposits, (2) receiving savings deposits, (3) carrying checking accounts, (4) making commercial loans, (5) making real estate loans, (6) making loans on stock or bond collateral, (7) making "personal" loans of the character usually made by Morris Plan or Industrial banks, (8) engaging in corporate trust business, and (9) engaging in individual trust business.

(1) Banks, banking associations, savings banks, or trust companies, more than 90 per cent of the stock of which is owned directly or indirectly by the United States or by any corporation of which the United States directly or indirectly owns more than 90 per cent of the stock;

(2) Banks, banking associations, savings banks, or trust companies which have been placed formally in liquidation or which are in the hands of receivers, conservators, or other officials exercising similar functions;

(3) Corporations principally engaged in international or foreign banking or banking in a dependency or insular possession of the United States which have entered into agreements with the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System pursuant to section 25 of the Federal Reserve Act (39 Stat. 755, 41 Stat. 285, 286; 12 U.S.C. 601-605);

(4) Mutual savings banks having no capital stock.

SECTION 212.3—RELATIONSHIPS PERMITTED BY BOARD

In addition to any relationships covered by the foregoing exceptions, not more than one of the following relationships is hereby permitted<sup>10</sup> by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System in the case of any one individual:

(a) Morris Plan bank or similar institution.—Any private banker or any director, officer, or employee of a member bank of the Federal Reserve System may be at the same time a director, officer, or employee of not more than one cooperative bank, credit union or other similar institution; and any private banker or any director, officer, or employee of a member bank of the Federal Reserve System who is lawfully serving as a director, officer, or employee of a Morris Plan bank or similar institution on January 31, 1939 may continue such service until June 1, 1940;

(b) Pending consolidation or merger.—Any director, officer, or employee of a member bank of the Federal Reserve System may be at the same time a director, officer, or employee of not more than one other bank, banking association, savings bank, or trust company if the records of both institutions show that active consideration is being given to the consolidation or merger of such member bank and such other bank, banking association, savings bank, or trust company, or

<sup>10</sup>The provisions formerly contained in section 8 of the Clayton Act authorizing the issuance of individual permits by the Board were repealed by section 329 of the Banking Act of 1935, and the Act now provides that the Board "may by regulation permit such service as a director, officer, or employee of not more than one other such institution or branch thereof * * *." (See first paragraph of section 8 (49 Stat. 718; 15 U.S.C. 19).) Accordingly, individual permits will no longer be issued.

that active consideration is being given to the purchase of a substantial portion of the assets and the assumption of a substantial portion of the liabilities of one such institution by the other;

Provided, That no interlocking relationship permitted pursuant to this paragraph shall continue for a period or periods aggregating more than six months;<sup>11</sup>

(c) Member banks not exercising trust powers and trust companies not holding deposits.—Any director, officer, or employee of a member bank of the Federal Reserve System which does not exercise trust powers may be at the same time a director, officer, or employee of not more than one trust company which does not receive or hold deposits,<sup>12</sup> and any director, officer, or employee of a trust company which is a member of the Federal Reserve System and which does not receive or hold deposits<sup>12</sup> may be at the same time a director, officer, or employee of not more than one bank, banking association, or savings bank which does not exercise trust powers;

(d) Exceptions applicable to a private banker.—Any private banker may be at the same time a director, officer, or employee of not more than one of the following:

(1) A bank, banking association, savings bank, or trust company organized under the laws of any State or of the District of Columbia which is not a member bank of the Federal Reserve System;

(2) A member bank more than 50 per cent of the common stock of which is owned directly or indirectly by such private banker or by a firm of private bankers of which he is a member;

(3) A member bank not located and having no branch in the same city, town, or village as that in which such private banker or a firm of private bankers of which he is a member maintains a place of business, or in any city, town, or village contiguous or adjacent thereto;<sup>13</sup>

(4) A member bank not engaged in a class (or classes) of busi-

<sup>11</sup> In the case of any relationship existing on the date this part becomes effective, such 6 months period shall begin to run on the effective date of this part.

<sup>12</sup> For the purpose of paragraph (c), the term "deposits" shall not include funds received and held in a fiduciary capacity.

<sup>13</sup> The Board has interpreted the term "contiguous" as referring to cities, towns, and villages whose corporate limits touch or coincide at some point, and has interpreted the word "adjacent" as referring to cities, towns and villages which, although not actually "contiguous" within the above interpretation of that word, are located in such close proximity and are so readily accessible to each other as to be in practical effect a single city, town, or village, as for example, cities, towns, or villages separated only by a water-course, or a suburb of a city separated from that city by an intervening suburb.

ness<sup>14</sup> in which such private banker or a firm of private bankers of which he is a member is engaged;

(e) [Reserved]

(f) Restrictions.—Any director, officer, or employee of a member bank of the Federal Reserve System may be at the same time a director, officer, or employee of not more than one bank which is principally engaged in international or foreign banking and which does not receive deposits or make loans in the United States except as may be incidental to its international or foreign business.

SECTION 212.4—ENFORCEMENT

(a) Action by Federal Reserve Agent.—Each Federal Reserve Agent shall cause the information contained in reports of examination of member banks and other information available to him from other sources to be analyzed in the light of the provisions of section 8 of the Clayton Act relating to interlocking relationships involving banks; and, in the case of any apparent violation of that section, shall communicate with the banking institutions and with the director, officer or employee involved, with a view of ascertaining whether the relationships involved are in conformity with the law, and if not, obtaining compliance with the law.

(b) Reports to Board.—In each case in which, after taking the steps outlined above, the Federal Reserve Agent finds that the relationships involved are in violation of the law and have not been brought into conformity with the law within a reasonable time after the matter was brought to the attention of the banking institutions and the officer, director or employee involved, the Federal Reserve Agent shall report the facts to the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System with a recommendation as to the action to be taken.

SECTION 212.5—AMENDMENTS

This part is subject to amendment or repeal, in whole or in part, in the discretion of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

<sup>14</sup>The phrase "class or classes of business" refers to the various types of business engaged in by such institutions involving relationships with customers, such as (1) receiving commercial deposits, (2) receiving savings deposits, (3) carrying checking accounts, (4) making commercial loans, (5) making real estate loans, (6) making loans on stock or bond collateral, (7) making "personal" loans of the character usually made by Morris Plan or Industrial banks, (8) engaging in corporate trust business, and (9) engaging in individual trust business.
