

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF DALLAS
FISCAL AGENT OF THE UNITED STATES

Dallas, Texas, April 9, 1963

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION CONCERNING TAX ACCOUNT NUMBERS ON SAVINGS BOND TRANSACTIONS

To All Banking Institutions and Others Concerned in the Eleventh Federal Reserve District:

The Treasury Department plans to request holders of outstanding Series H and K savings bonds to furnish taxpayer identification numbers. In the interest of uniformity, the requirements of the Internal Revenue Service applying to joint accounts will be adhered to in that the Social Security number of either coowner may be furnished for bonds in coownership form.

The plan will also apply to new purchases of H bonds and reissues of H and K bonds with the provision that if the coowners are husband and wife, the husband's number will be furnished, and if adult and minor, the number of the adult will be furnished.

This modifies in part the tax identification requirements set out in the Third Amendment to Department Circular No. 905 and the Fiscal Assistant Secretary's letter dated January 21, 1963.

Yours very truly,

Watrous H. Irons
President
