

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF DALLAS

FISCAL AGENT OF THE UNITED STATES

Dallas, Texas, August 31, 1964

UNITED STATES TREASURY BILLS

To All Banking Institutions and Others Concerned
in the Eleventh Federal Reserve District:

There is quoted below a press statement issued today by the Treasury Department in regard to an increase in the amount of weekly Treasury bills to be auctioned during September and a change in the date for the receipt of tenders for bills to be issued next week.

Treasury to Increase Amount of Offerings of 3-Month Treasury Bills Maturing December 10, 17, 24 and 31

The Treasury announced today that it is advancing to Friday, September 4 its weekly auction of Treasury bills because of the Labor Day holiday on Monday, September 7. At the same time the Treasury announced that it will increase the amount of 3-month Treasury bills included in this auction by $100 million. The total amount offered will be $1.3 billion maturing December 10, 1964 and $900 million maturing March 11, 1965.

The Treasury further announced that it intends to increase by similar amounts of $100 million the succeeding three auctions of 3-month Treasury bills which will mature on December 17, 24 and 31, 1964. The corresponding weekly offerings of 6-month bills are expected to remain at $900 million.

The decision to increase the amount of these offerings of 3-month bills was made in order to meet the heavy seasonal demand for December maturities which has already resulted in comparatively low interest rates for the issues outstanding on those dates.

The tender forms for the 91-day and 182-day Treasury bills to be issued on September 10, 1964, are enclosed. Tenders for these bills will be received at this bank and its branches at El Paso, Houston and San Antonio, up to eleven-thirty a.m., Central Standard time, Friday, September 4, 1964.

Yours very truly,

Watrous H. Irons

President

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF DALLAS

FISCAL AGENT OF THE UNITED STATES

Dallas, Texas, August 31, 1964

NEW OFFERING — TREASURY BILLS

To All Banking Institutions and Others Concerned
in the Eleventh Federal Reserve District:

Your attention is invited to the following statement giving details of two issues of Treasury bills:

The Treasury Department, by this public notice, invites tenders for two series of Treasury bills to the aggregate amount of $2,100,000,000, or thereabout, for cash and in exchange for Treasury bills maturing September 10, 1964, in the amount of $2,101,395,000, as follows:

91-DAY BILLS (to maturity date) to be issued September 10, 1964, in the amount of $1,300,000,000, or thereabouts, representing an additional amount of bills dated June 11, 1964, and to mature December 10, 1964, originally issued in the amount of $900,518,000 (an additional $100,086,000 was issued July 29, 1964), the additional and original bills to be freely interchangeable.

182-DAY BILLS for $900,000,000, or thereabouts, to be dated September 10, 1964, and to mature March 11, 1965.

The bills of both series will be issued on a discount basis under competitive and noncompetitive bidding as hereinafter provided, and at maturity their face amount will be payable without interest. They will be issued in bearer form only, and in denominations of $1,000, $5,000, $10,000, $50,000, $100,000, $500,000 and $1,000,000 (maturity value).

Tenders will be received at Federal Reserve Banks and Branches up to the closing hour, one-thirty p.m., Eastern Daylight Saving time, Friday, September 4, 1964. Tenders will not be received at the Treasury Department, Washington. Each tender must be for an even multiple of $1,000, and in the case of competitive tenders the price offered must be expressed on the basis of 100, with not more than three decimals, e.g., 99.925. Fractions may not be used. It is urged that tenders be made on the printed forms and forwarded in the special envelopes which will be supplied by Federal Reserve Banks or Branches on application therefor.

Banking institutions generally may submit tenders for account of customers provided the names of the customers are set forth in such tenders. Others than banking institutions will not be permitted to submit tenders except for their own account. Tenders will be received without deposit from incorporated banks and trust companies and from responsible and recognized dealers in investment securities. Tenders from others must be accompanied by payment of 2 percent of the face amount of Treasury bills applied for, unless the tenders are accompanied by an express guaranty of payment by an incorporated bank or trust company.

Immediately after the closing hour, tenders will be opened at the Federal Reserve Banks and Branches, following which public announcement will be made by the Treasury Department of the amount and price range of accepted bids. Those submitting tenders will be advised of the acceptance or rejection thereof. The Secretary of the Treasury expressly reserves the right to accept or reject any or all tenders, in whole or in part, and his action in any such respect shall be final. Subject to these reservations, noncompetitive tenders for $200,000 or less for the additional bills dated June 11, 1964, (91 days remaining until maturity date on December 10, 1964) and noncompetitive tenders for $100,000 or less for the 182-day bills without stated price from any one bidder will be accepted in full at the average price (in three decimals) of accepted competitive bids for the respective issues. Settlement for accepted tenders in accordance with the bids must be made or completed at the Federal Reserve Bank on September 10, 1964, in cash or other immediately available funds or in a like face amount of Treasury bills maturing September 10, 1964. Cash and exchange tenders will receive equal treatment. Cash adjustments will be made for differences between the par value of maturing bills accepted in exchange and the issue price of the new bills.

The income derived from Treasury bills, whether interest or gain from the sale or other disposition of the bills, does not have any exemption, as such, and loss from the sale or other disposition of Treasury bills does not have any special treatment, as such, under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. The bills are subject to estate, inheritance, gift or other excise taxes, whether Federal or State, but are exempt from all taxation now or hereafter imposed on the principal or interest thereof by any State, or any of the possessions of the United States, or by any local taxing authority. For purposes of taxation the amount of discount at which Treasury bills are originally sold by the United States is considered to be interest. Under Sections 454 (b) and 1221 (5) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 the amount of discount at which bills issued hereunder are sold is not considered to accrue until such bills are sold, redeemed or otherwise disposed of, and such bills are excluded from consideration as capital assets. Accordingly, the owner of Treasury bills (other than life insurance companies) issued hereunder need include in his income tax return only the difference between the price paid for such bills, whether on original issue or on subsequent purchase, and the amount actually received either upon sale or redemption at maturity during the taxable year for which the return is made, as ordinary gain or loss.

Treasury Department Circular No. 418 (current revision) and this notice, prescribe the terms of the Treasury bills and govern the conditions of their issue. Copies of the circular may be obtained from any Federal Reserve Bank or Branch.

In accordance with the above announcement, tenders will be received at this bank and its branches at El Paso, Houston and San Antonio, up to eleven-thirty a.m., Central Standard time, Friday, September 4, 1964. Tenders may not be entered by telephone.

Yours very truly,

Watrous H. Irons

President
