

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF DALLAS

FISCAL AGENT OF THE UNITED STATES

Dallas, Texas, December 3, 1965

To All Banking Institutions and Others Concerned in the Eleventh Federal Reserve District:

At the request of the twelve Federal Land Banks, the following notice is given with respect to the maturity on December 20, 1965, of the consolidated Federal Farm Loan 4 percent bonds dated June 20, 1961, and the plans of the Federal land banks to provide funds for the redemption of these maturing bonds:

An issue of $140 million consolidated Federal Farm Loan 4 percent bonds dated June 20, 1961, will mature December 20, 1965. These bonds may be redeemed through the Federal Reserve Banks and Branches or the Treasurer of the United States, Washington, D. C.

Funds for the redemption of the maturing bonds and for other requirements will be provided by the Federal land banks through a public offering of consolidated Federal farm loan bonds for delivery December 20, 1965. The new bonds will be offered for cash, no preference being given holders of the maturing issue. The offering will comprise \$178 million, or thereabouts, of 4 $\frac{5}{8}$ percent bonds dated December 20, 1965, due August 21, 1967.

The bonds will be offered by the banks' Fiscal Agent, John T. Knox, One Chase Manhattan Plaza, New York, New York 10005, through an organized dealer group, at a price to be announced on or about December 7.
