

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF DALLAS

DALLAS, TEXAS 75222

Circular No. 67-176
September 15, 1967

FUNCTIONAL COST ANALYSIS

BULLETIN

To Person Responsible for the Preparation of Functional Cost Analysis
Workpapers at Member Bank Addressed:

You may be interested to know that 169 member banks in this District are participating in the 1967 Functional Cost Analysis study.

As this program involves considerable detail, we are wondering if a visit to your bank would be helpful. If so, we will be prepared beginning in October through the end of January to visit as many of our participating banks as may require special assistance.

If you would like a representative to visit your bank, please complete and return the attached request at your earliest convenience.

Leon W. Cowan
Assistant Vice President

Charles W. Bailey
Functional Cost Analyst

Functional Cost Analysis Division of the Loan Department
Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas
Station K
Dallas, Texas 75222

We feel it would be helpful if a representative of your bank could give us some assistance in our cost analysis study.

The best time for a visit would be _____

Bank

Signature