

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF DALLAS

DALLAS, TEXAS 75222

September 16, 1970
Circular 70-216

To All Banks in the Eleventh Federal Reserve District:

The Procedures for Commercial Banks in Handling Food Coupons Under the Food Stamp Program, states that any report of loss of Food Coupons while in transit should be made promptly on discovery to all of the following: the local field office of the Consumer and Marketing Service; the nearest Secret Service Office; the Post Office or other carrier; and the Secretary of the Treasury, Bureau of Accounts.

We have been advised by the United States Department of Agriculture, Food and Nutrition Service, that it is no longer necessary for commercial banks to report losses in transit to the Secret Service or the Secretary of the Treasury, Bureau of Accounts.

Yours very truly,

P. E. Coldwell

President
