

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF DALLAS

DALLAS, TEXAS 75222

Circular No. 71-150

June 23, 1971

THE BANK HOLDING COMPANY ACT
(Extension of Filing Deadline)

To All Member Banks and Others Concerned
in the Eleventh Federal Reserve District:

The Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System on June 22, 1971, granted a two-month extension of the deadline for bank holding companies to register with the Board.

Exercising authority granted it under the Bank Holding Company Act, the Board extended the registration time from June 29 to August 31, 1971, or 180 days after a company becomes a bank holding company, whichever is later.

The extension was granted, the Board's order said, "In the light of the relatively short period" that the companies affected have had for compliance with the registration requirement.

The order does not supersede longer extensions that may have been granted in individual cases by Reserve banks, or that may be granted in the future.

Yours very truly,

P. E. Coldwell

President
