OFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

TO ALL BANKS IN THE
ELEVENTH FEDERAL RESERVE DISTRICT:

It is a pleasure to announce that the Board of Directors of the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas has made several changes in the official staff of the Head Office and El Paso and San Antonio Branches. The following changes were effective April 1, 1981:

Jack A. Clymer, formerly Assistant Vice President at the Head Office and more recently Vice President with the Texas Credit Union League, has been elected Vice President and will have supervision of the Cash, Fiscal Agency, and Securities Departments.

Donald L. Jackson, formerly Manager of the Cash Department at the Head Office, has been elected Assistant Vice President and will have direct supervision of the Cash Department.

Larry M. Snell, formerly Manager of the Data Management and Daytime Check Processing Center (DCPC) Divisions of the Payments Mechanism Department at the Head Office, has been elected Assistant Vice President and will have direct supervision of the Mailing Department, as well as the DCPC and Regional Check Processing Center Divisions of the Payments Mechanism Department.

William L. Wilson, formerly Manager of the Accounting and Loan Department at the El Paso Branch, has been elected Assistant Vice President at that Branch and will have supervision of the Accounting and Loan and Cash-Fiscal Agency Departments.

Antonio G. Valencia, Jr., formerly Manager of the Cash-Fiscal Agency Department at the San Antonio Branch, has been elected Assistant Vice President at that Branch and will have supervision of the Accounting Department.

The following changes in the official staff at the Head Office will become effective May 1, 1981:

Millard E. Sweatt, Jr., presently Assistant General Counsel, has been promoted to Vice President and General Counsel and will have general supervision of the Legal Department. He will succeed Vice President and General Counsel George F. Rudy, who will retire effective May 1, 1981.

William A. Tribble, presently Senior Attorney, has been elected Assistant General Counsel and Assistant Secretary and will have direct supervision of the Legal Department. Mr. Tribble will succeed Assistant Vice President Richard D. Ingram as Assistant Secretary.

The following changes in the official staff at the San Antonio Branch will become effective June 1, 1981:

Thomas H. Robertson, presently Assistant Vice President, has been promoted to Vice President in Charge of the San Antonio Branch. He will succeed Vice President Carl H. Moore, who will retire effective June 1, 1981.

John A. Bullock, presently Manager of the Checks Department at the Houston Branch, has been elected Assistant Vice President at the San Antonio Branch.

In addition, the following changes have been made in the assignments of certain other officers, effective April 1, 1981.

Larry J. Reck, Vice President at the Head Office, will have general supervision of the Mailing and Payments Mechanism Departments.

Forrest E. Coleman, Assistant Vice President at the Head Office, will have direct supervision of the Facilities Management, Services and Building Maintenance, and Protection Departments.

Larry N. Hill, Assistant Vice President at the Head Office, will have direct supervision of the Fiscal Agency and Securities Departments.

Mary M. Rosas, Assistant Vice President at the Head Office, will have direct supervision of the Adjustments/Return Items and Automated Clearing House Divisions of the Payments Mechanism Department.

Robert W. Schultz, Assistant Vice President at the El Paso Branch, will have supervision of the Checks, Data Services, and Personnel and Services Departments.

Sincerely yours,

Robert H. Boykin

President
