FEDERAL RESERVE press release

For immediate release

June 1, 1984

The Federal Reserve Board announced today that it is seeking nominations of qualified individuals for nine appointments to its Consumer Advisory Council, to replace members whose terms expire on December 31, 1984.

Nominations should be submitted in writing to Dolores S. Smith, Assistant Director, Division of Consumer and Community Affairs, Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, Washington, D.C. 20551, and must be received no later than August 10, 1984.

Nominations should include the name, address, and telephone number of the nominee, past and present positions held, and special knowledge, interests, and experience related to consumer financial matters.

The Consumer Advisory Council was established by Congress in 1976, at the suggestion of the Board, to advise the Board on the exercise of its duties under the Consumer Credit Protection Act and on other consumer-related matters. The Council meets three times a year.

The Board's notice, including the names, affiliations and terms of office of the current Council members, is attached.

FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM
Consumer Advisory Council;
Solicitation of Nominations for Membership

AGENCY: Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

ACTION: Solicitation of nominations for membership on the Board's Consumer Advisory Council.

SUMMARY: The Board is asking the public to nominate qualified individuals for nine appointments to its Consumer Advisory Council. Nominations should include the name, address, and telephone number of the nominee, together with information about past and present positions held, and special knowledge, interests or experience related to consumer credit or other consumer financial services. It is contemplated that the Board will announce its selection of new members by year-end.

DATE: Nominations should be received by August 10, 1984.

ADDRESS: Nominations should be mailed to Dolores S. Smith, Assistant Director, Division of Consumer and Community Affairs, Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, Washington, D. C. 20551.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Ann Marie Bray, Staff Assistant, Division of Consumer and Community Affairs, Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, Washington, D. C. 20551, (202) 452-2412.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Consumer Advisory Council was established by the Congress in 1976 to advise the Federal Reserve Board on the exercise of its duties under the Consumer Credit Protection Act and on other consumer-related matters. The Council by law represents the interests both of consumers and of the financial community. Members serve three-year terms that are staggered to provide the Council with continuity.

Nine new members will be selected this year to replace members whose terms expire on December 31, 1984. The Board expects to announce its selection of new members by year-end. The Board is particularly interested in candidates who are familiar with issues in the area of consumer credit and other consumer financial services. In making the appointments, the Board also will seek to complement the qualifications of continuing Council members in terms of affiliation and geographic representation.

The Council meets in Washington, D.C. three times a year. Council members are paid $100 per day for participating in the two-day meetings and for travel time. The Board also pays travel expenses.

Nominations should be submitted in writing to Dolores S. Smith, Assistant Director, Division of Consumer and Community Affairs, Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, Washington, D. C. 20551, and must be received no later than August 10, 1984. Nominations should include the name, address and telephone number of the nominee, past and present positions held, and special knowledge, interests or experience relating to consumer financial matters. This information will be made available for public inspection and copying upon request, except as provided in § 261.6(a) of the Board's Rules Regarding Availability of Information.
