Notice 91-04

TO: The Chief Executive Officer of each member bank and others concerned in the Eleventh Federal Reserve District

SUBJECT

Federal Reserve Board Appointments to the Thrift Institutions Advisory Council

DETAILS

The Federal Reserve Board has announced the names of seven new members appointed to its Thrift Institutions Advisory Council and has designated a new president of the council for 1991.

The council is an advisory group made up of 12 representatives from thrift institutions. The panel was established by the Board in 1980 and includes savings and loan, savings bank, and credit union representatives. The council meets at least four times each year with the Board of Governors to discuss developments relating to thrift institutions, the housing industry, mortgage finance, and certain regulatory issues.

These new council members are from the Eleventh District:

Daniel C. Arnold, Chairman and President of Farm and Home Financial Corporation, Houston, Texas, and

James L. Bryan, President and Chief Executive Officer, TEXINS Credit Union, Richardson, Texas.
