Notice 92-02

TO: The Chief Executive Officer of each member bank and others concerned in the Eleventh Federal Reserve District

SUBJECT

Federal Reserve Board Appointments to the Consumer Advisory Council

DETAILS

The Federal Reserve Board has announced the names of 13 new members appointed to its Consumer Advisory Council to replace those members whose terms have expired. In addition, the Board has designated a new chairman and vice chairman of the council for 1992.

The Consumer Advisory Council was established by Congress in 1976, at the suggestion of the Board, to advise the Board on the exercise of its duties under the Consumer Credit Protection Act and on other consumer-related matters. The 30-member council, with staggered three-year terms of office, meets three times a year.

Colleen D. Hernandez, Executive Director of the Kansas City Neighborhood Alliance in Kansas City, Missouri, has been designated chairman. Her term on the council runs through December 1992. Denny D. Dumler, Senior Vice President of the Colorado National Bank in Denver, Colorado, has been designated vice chairman. His term on the council expires in December 1993.
