Notice 92-44

TO: The Chief Executive Officer of each member bank and others concerned in the Eleventh Federal Reserve District

SUBJECT

Consumer Advisory Council Meeting

DETAILS

The Federal Reserve Board has announced that its Consumer Advisory Council will hold its next meeting on June 11, 1992. The meeting will be held in Dining Room E on the Terrace level of the Martin Building. The session will begin at 9 a.m. and is open to the public.

The council's function is to advise the Board on the exercise of its responsibilities under the Consumer Credit Protection Act and on other matters on which the Board seeks its advice. In addition to the following matters, reports by committees and other matters previously considered by the council or initiated by the council members may also be discussed:

- Issues Related to Unlawful Mortgage Discrimination
- CRA Performance Evaluations
- Truth in Savings Act
- Electronic Benefits Transfer Programs (Tentative)
- Members Forum
- Governor's Report
- Council Members' Perspectives

Persons wishing to submit to the council their views regarding any of the above topics may do so by sending written statements to Ann Marie Bray, Secretary, Consumer Advisory Council, Division of Consumer and Community Affairs, Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, Washington, D.C. 20551. Comments must be received by June 5 and must be of a quality suitable for reproduction.
