DALLAS, TEXAS 75222

Notice 92-67

TO: The Chief Executive Officer of each member bank and others concerned in the Eleventh Federal Reserve District

SUBJECT

Consumer Advisory Council Nominations

DETAILS

The Federal Reserve Board has announced it is seeking nominations of qualified individuals for nine appointments to its Consumer Advisory Council to replace members whose terms expire on December 31, 1992.

The Consumer Advisory Council was established in 1976 to advise the Board on the exercise of its responsibilities under the Consumer Credit Protection Act and on other matters on which the Board seeks its advice. The council by law represents the interests both of consumers and of the financial community. The group meets in Washington, D.C. three times a year.

Nine new members will be selected from the nominations to serve three-year terms that will begin in January 1993. The Board expects to announce the selection of new members by year-end 1992.

Nominations should be submitted in writing and should include the address and telephone number of the nominee. In addition, information about past and present positions held, special knowledge, interests or experience related to consumer credit or other consumer financial services should be included.

The written nominations must be received by August 30, 1992, and should be addressed to Dolores S. Smith, Assistant Director, Division of Consumer and Community Affairs, Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, Washington, D.C. 20551. Information about nominees will be available for inspection upon request.

ATTACHMENT

The Board's notice, including the names, affiliations, and terms of office of the current council members, is attached.

FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM

Consumer Advisory Council

Solicitation of Nominations for Membership

AGENCY: Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The Board is asking the public to nominate qualified individuals for appointment to its Consumer Advisory Council, which is comprised of representatives both of consumer and community interests and of the financial services industry. Nine new members will be selected for three-year terms that will begin in January 1993. The Board expects to announce the selection of new members by year-end 1992.

DATES: Nominations should be received by August 30, 1992.

ADDRESSES: Nominations should be submitted in writing to Dolores S. Smith, Assistant Director, Division of Consumer and Community Affairs, Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, Washington, D.C. 20551. Information about nominees will be available for inspection upon request.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Bedelia Calhoun, Staff Specialist, Division of Consumer and Community Affairs, (202) 452-2412; or for Telecommunications Device for the Deaf (TDD) users only, Dorothea Thompson (202) 452-3544; Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, Washington, D.C. 20551.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Consumer Advisory Council was established in 1976 at the direction of Congress to advise the Federal Reserve Board on the exercise of its duties under the Consumer Credit Protection Act and on other consumer-related matters. The Council by law represents the interests both of consumers and of the financial community. Members serve three-year terms that are staggered to provide the Council with continuity. The Council's meetings are held in Washington, D.C.

New members will be selected this year for terms beginning January 1, 1993, to replace members whose terms expire this year.

Nominations should include the address and telephone number of the nominee, information about past and present positions held, and a description of special knowledge, interests or experience related to consumer credit or other consumer financial services.

Persons may nominate themselves as well as other individuals.

The Board is interested in candidates who are willing to express their viewpoints and who have some familiarity with consumer financial services. Candidates do not have to be experts on all levels of consumer financial services, but they should possess some basic knowledge of the area. In addition, they should be able to make the necessary time commitment to prepare for and attend meetings (usually two days long including committee meetings) three times a year.

In making the appointments, the Board will seek to complement the qualifications of continuing Council members in terms of affiliation and geographic representation, and to ensure the representation of women and minority groups. The Board expects to announce its selection of new members by year-end.
