the Eleventh Federal Reserve District

SUBJECT

Availability of Home Mortgage Disclosure Act
Statement Data

DETAILS

The Federal Financial Institutions Examination Council (FFIEC) has announced that data relating to 1991 mortgage lending activity in metropolitan areas throughout the nation are available from individual institutions. The data consist of individual disclosure statements for each lender covered by the Home Mortgage Disclosure Act (HMDA).

The 1991 HMDA data cover more than 9,000 lenders and the reports reflect more than 7.8 million loan and application records. The FFIEC prepared the individual disclosure statements on behalf of its member agencies (the Comptroller of the Currency, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, the Office of Thrift Supervision, the National Credit Union Administration, and the Federal Reserve System) and on behalf of the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development.

An article to be published in the Federal Reserve Bulletin for November 1992 will provide preliminary analyses of the 1991 data. The article also will give an overview of 1991 data evaluation, regulatory initiatives, and practical applications among the public and private sector that have occurred since the release of the 1990 data last October.
