TO: The Chief Executive Officer of each member bank and others concerned in the Eleventh Federal Reserve District

SUBJECT

Consumer Advisory Council Meeting

DETAILS

The Federal Reserve Board has announced that the Consumer Advisory Council will hold its next meeting on October 28, 1993. The meeting will be held in Terrace Room E of the Martin Building. The session will begin at 9 a.m. and is open to the public.

The council's function is to advise the Board on the exercise of its responsibilities under the Consumer Credit Protection Act and on other matters on which the Board seeks its advice. In addition to the following matters, reports by committees and other matters previously considered by the council or initiated by the council members may also be discussed:

- Community Reinvestment Act Reform
- Community Banking and Financial Institutions Fund Proposals
- Models for Economic Development
- Small Business Credit Availability
- Members Forum
- Council Member Perspectives
- Governor's Report

Persons wishing to submit to the council their views regarding any of the above topics may do so by sending written statements to Ann Marie Bray, Secretary, Consumer Advisory Council, Division of Consumer and Community Affairs, Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, Washington, D.C. 20551. Comments must be received by October 22, 1993, and must be of a quality suitable for reproduction.
