Notice 95-25

TO: The Chief Executive Officer of each member bank and others concerned in the Eleventh Federal Reserve District

SUBJECT

Federal Reserve Board Appointments to the Consumer Advisory Council

DETAILS

The Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System has announced the appointment of 13 new members to its Consumer Advisory Council to replace those members whose terms have expired. In addition, the Board has designated a new chairman and vice chairman of the council for 1995.

The Consumer Advisory Council was established by Congress in 1976, at the suggestion of the Board, to advise the Board on the exercise of its duties under the Consumer Credit Protection Act and on other consumer-related matters. The 30-member council, with staggered three-year terms of office, meets three times a year.

James L. West, President of Jim West Financial Group in Tijeras, New Mexico, has been designated chairman. His term will run through December 1995. Katharine W. McKee, Transition Director for the Community Development Financial Institutions Fund in Washington, D.C., has been designated vice chairman. Her term on the council expires December 1996.

The 13 new members are

Thomas R. Butler, President and Chief Operating Officer of Discover Card Services, Riverwoods, Illinois

Robert A. Cook, Partner, Venable, Baetjer and Howard, Baltimore, Maryland
