Notice 95-98

TO: The Chief Executive Officer of each member bank and others concerned in the Eleventh Federal Reserve District

SUBJECT

Consumer Advisory Council Meeting

DETAILS

The Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System has announced that the Consumer Advisory Council will hold its next meeting on November 2, 1995. The meeting will be held in Terrace Room E of the Martin Building. The session will begin at 9 a.m. and is open to the public.

The council's function is to advise the Board on the exercise of its responsibilities under the Consumer Credit Protection Act and other matters on which the Board seeks its advice. Reports by committees and other matters previously considered by the council or initiated by the council members may also be discussed in addition to the following matters:

- Community Reinvestment Act Reform
- Consumer Leasing Disclosures
- Truth in Lending Act Amendments of 1995
- Regulatory Coverage for Stored-Value Cards
- Impact of Technology on Consumer Banking
- Governor's Report
- Member's Forum

Persons wishing to submit their views to the council regarding any of the above topics may do so by sending written statements to Ann Marie Bray, Secretary, Consumer Advisory Council, Division of Consumer and Community Affairs, Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, Washington, D.C. 20551. Comments must be received by October 25, 1995, and must be of reproducible quality.
