SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

Section 1115 of the RFPA (12 U.S.C. 3415) requires the Board to establish, by regulation, the rates and conditions under which payment is made by a Government authority to a financial institution for searching for, reproducing, or transporting data required or requested under the RFPA. Shortly after the RFPA was adopted, the Board issued Regulation S (12 CFR 219) to implement this provision (44 FR 55812, September 28, 1979). No changes to the rates have been made since that time. In January 1995, the Board adopted a new Subpart B of Regulation S (to become effective on January 1, 1996¹) and designated this part of Regulation S as Subpart A. 60 FR 231 (January 3, 1995) No substantive changes were made to the newly designated Subpart A. Pursuant to section 303 of the Riegle Community Development and Regulatory Improvement Act of 1994, Pub. L. 103-325 (12 U.S.C. 4803), the Board has reviewed Subpart A of Regulation S and proposes to update it through these amendments. These amendments streamline the regulation by eliminating unnecessary provisions, and they update the rates to be paid and the exceptions to the provisions of this Subpart.

I. Definitions

The definitions in Subpart A reiterate the statutory definitions from the RFPA for the applicable terms of this Subpart. The definition for "directly incurred costs" has been removed and incorporated into the section concerning cost reimbursement.

II. Cost Reimbursement

This section has been streamlined and reorganized to place the rates in a separate Appendix A for clarity and ease of amendment when updating the rates. The proposed amendments also recognize that courts issuing orders or subpoenas in connection with grand jury proceedings must pay the rates set by Subpart A.

¹ In a rulemaking issued on August 24, 1995 (60 FR 44144), the effective date of Subpart B has been delayed until April 1, 1996.

III. Rates

The Board is particularly interested in receiving comments on the rates proposed in Appendix A. It is difficult to establish rates to be applied across all geographic regions and to all depository institutions, regardless of size. While recognizing this difficulty, the Board nevertheless proposes a uniform rate in the belief that administration of a complex fee schedule would be difficult.

A. Reproduction

The rates proposed for reproduction are the same rates used by the Board to charge requesters seeking documents under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA). The Board establishes its FOIA fees based upon the actual costs of making such reproductions and believes that these costs are similar to those incurred by other entities. The Board welcomes comments on the appropriateness of the proposed fees and any suggested alternative methods of determining the fees.

B. Search and Processing

The proposed fees for search and processing are separated into two categories—clerical/technical and manager/supervisory. Any search for sensitive customer records is likely to involve both clerical staff and managerial staff, who are paid at different levels. The rates set for this reimbursement were calculated using the 1994 Bank Cash Compensation Survey done by the Bank Administration Institute. Based upon the job descriptions in the Cash Compensation Survey, the position of Supervisor, Bookkeeping was used to calculate the managerial rate. The calculation was made based upon the total compensation (with bonus) for all banks on a national average ($27,600) divided by 2080 hours, adjusted up by 25% to cover benefits, and further adjusted by 3% for inflation since 1994. The clerical rate was calculated in the same way, but using an average of the two job positions of Clerk II (Bookkeeping and Operations @ $18,100) and Clerk I (Bookkeeping and Operations @ $15,100). The Board is very interested in receiving comments on the rates and the method of calculation.

IV. Exceptions

This section has been updated to reflect changes in the exceptions listed by the RFPA.

V. Conditions for Payment and Payment Procedures

No substantive changes have been made to these two sections.

Regulatory Flexibility Act

Pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 605, the Board certifies that this proposed rule, if adopted, will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities. The proposed rule confers a benefit on financial institutions, including small financial institutions, by providing for reimbursement of certain costs incurred in complying with a requirement to assemble and produce financial records.

Paperwork Reduction Act

In accordance with section 3506 of the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. Ch. 35; 5 CFR 1320 Appendix A.1), the Board reviewed the proposed rule under the authority delegated to the Board by the Office of Management and Budget. Comments on the collections of information should be sent to the Office of Management and Budget, Paperwork Reduction Project (7100-0203), Washington, DC 20503, with copies of such comments to be sent to Mary M. McLaughlin, Federal Reserve Board Clearance Officer, Division of Research and Statistics, Mail Stop 97, Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, Washington, DC 20551.

The Right to Financial Privacy Act mandates that each financial institution maintain a record of instances in which it releases a consumer's financial information to a government agency. Generally, the institution may not release records until the government agency has notified the consumer of its intent to request the record, together with the reason for the request. Normally, the agency may not obtain records unless it has a subpoena, a search warrant, or an authorization from the consumer.

The Federal Reserve may not conduct or sponsor, and an organization is not required to respond to, this information collection unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number. The OMB control number for the Recordkeeping and Disclosure Requirements in Connection with the Right to Financial Privacy Act is 7100-0203.

Because the records would be maintained at banks, no issue of confidentiality under the Freedom of Information Act arises.

This proposed regulation, 12 CFR 219, has no effect upon the paperwork burden associated with the Recordkeeping and Disclosure Requirements in Connection with the Right to Financial Privacy Act. That hour burden is estimated to be 22 minutes per response. It is estimated that the frequency of response at state member banks is 30 responses per year. Thus the annual hour burden across the 975 state member banks is estimated to be 10,725 hours. Based on an hourly cost of $20, the annual cost to the public is estimated to be $214,500.

List of Subjects in 12 CFR Part 219

Banks, banking, Currency, Federal Reserve System, Foreign banking, Reporting and recordkeeping requirements.

For the reasons set out in the preamble, 12 CFR Part 219, as amended at 60 FR 231 and 44144 effective April 1, 1996, is proposed to be amended as set forth below.
