Notice 2000-19

TO: The Chief Executive Officer of each financial institution and others concerned in the Eleventh Federal Reserve District

SUBJECT

Three Interim Rules and Three Requests for Public Comments

DETAILS

The Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System has amended Regulation Y (Banking Holding Companies and Change in Bank Control) on an interim basis. The amendment, effective March 11, 2000, includes the following:

- A list of the financial activities permissible for a financial holding company under the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act;
- Procedures a financial holding company must follow to engage in listed financial activities as well as activities that are complementary to a financial activity; and
- Procedures by which a financial holding company or any other party may request that the Board determine other permissible activities not listed in the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act.

The Board has requested public comments on all aspects of the interim rule and will amend the rule as appropriate in response to comments received. Please submit comments by May 12, 2000, and refer to Docket No. R-1062.

Under current rules, section 20 subsidiaries are subject to eight operating standards imposed by the Board to address certain potential risks and conflicts associated with the affiliation of a bank and a securities firm. The Board has adopted an interim rule, effective March 11,

2000, to impose two of the eight operating standards on financial holding companies engaged in securities underwriting, dealing, or market-making activities. The two operating standards require that

- intra-day extensions of credit by a bank, thrift, or U.S. branch or agency of a foreign bank to a securities affiliate engaged in securities underwriting, dealing, or market-making must be on market terms and
- foreign banks that are or are treated as financial holding companies must comply with certain affiliate transaction restrictions regarding lending and securities purchase transactions between a U.S. branch or agency of a foreign bank and a securities affiliate.

The Board must receive public comments on the interim rule by May 12, 2000. Please refer to Docket No. R-1063.

In addition, the Board has amended Regulation H (Membership of State Banking Institutions in the Federal Reserve System). The amendment implements provisions of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, which authorizes state member banks to control, or hold an interest in, financial subsidiaries that may conduct certain activities that are financial in nature or incidental to a financial activity. This rule, effective March 11, 2000, was adopted by the Board on an interim basis to allow state member banks that meet applicable criteria to acquire control of, or an interest in, a financial subsidiary as soon as possible.

The Board has requested public comments on all aspects of the interim rule and will amend the rule as appropriate in response to comments received. Please submit comments by May 12, 2000, and refer to Docket No. R-1064.

Please address comments on all three of the above interim rules to Jennifer J. Johnson, Secretary, Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, 20th Street and Constitution Avenue, N.W., Washington, DC 20551. Also, you may mail comments electronically to regs.comments@federalreserve.gov. All comments should refer to the appropriate docket numbers.

FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM

12 CFR Part 225

[Regulation Y; Docket No. R-1062]

Bank Holding Companies and Change in Bank Control

AGENCY: Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

ACTION: Interim rule with request for public comments.

SUMMARY: The Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System is amending its Regulation Y on an interim basis effective March 11, 2000, to include a list of the financial activities permissible for a financial holding company under the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act. The Board also is adopting procedures a financial holding company must follow in order to engage in listed financial activities, as well as activities that are complementary to a financial activity. In addition, the Board is adopting procedures by which a financial holding company or any other interested party may make requests that the Board determine that activities not listed in the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act are permissible for a financial holding company. The Board is promulgating this rule on an interim basis in order to make a list of permissible activities and the applicable notification procedures for engaging in those activities available to financial holding companies on the effective date of the financial holding company provisions of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act.

The interim rule adds five sections to Subpart I of Regulation Y. The first two sections list the financial activities in which the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act permits a financial holding company to engage and explain that Board approval generally is not required to engage in those activities. The third section explains the post-commencement notice procedures applicable to listed activities. The fourth section establishes a procedure by which any interested party may request that the Board find an activity that is not listed in the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act or the rule to be financial in nature or incidental to a financial activity. The fifth section establishes a procedure by which a financial holding company may seek a Board determination that a particular activity is complementary to a financial activity and receive approval to engage in that activity.

The Board solicits comments on all aspects of the interim rule and will amend the rule as appropriate in response to comments received.

DATES: This interim rule is effective on March 11, 2000. Comments must be received by May 12, 2000.

ADDRESSES: Comments should refer to docket number R-1062 and should be sent to Ms. Jennifer J. Johnson, Secretary, Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, 20th Street and Constitution Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C., 20551 or mailed electronically to regs.comments@federalreserve.gov. Comments addressed to Ms. Johnson also may be delivered to the Board's mail room between the hours of 8:45 a.m. and 5:15 p.m. and, outside those hours, to the Board's security control room. Both the mail room and the security control room are accessible from the Eccles Building courtyard entrance, located on 20th Street between Constitution Avenue and C Street, N.W. Members of the public may inspect comments in room MP-500 of the Martin Building between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. on weekdays.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:Background

The Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act (Pub. L. No. 106-102, 113 Stat. 1338 (1999)) (the "GLB Act") authorizes affiliations among banks, securities firms, insurance firms, and other financial companies. The GLB Act amends the Bank Holding Company Act ("BHC Act") (12 U.S.C. 1841 et seq.) to allow a bank holding company or foreign bank that qualifies as a financial holding company to engage in a broad range of activities that are defined by the GLB Act to be financial in nature or incidental to a financial activity, or that the Board, in consultation with the Secretary of the Treasury, determines to be financial in nature or incidental to a financial activity. The GLB Act also allows a financial holding company to seek Board approval to engage in any activity that the Board determines both to be complementary to a financial activity and not to pose a substantial risk to the safety and soundness of depository institutions or the financial system generally. Bank holding companies that do not qualify as financial holding companies are limited to engaging in those nonbanking activities that were permissible for bank holding companies prior to the enactment of the GLB Act.

The GLB Act provides that, in most cases, a financial holding company may engage or acquire the shares of a company that is engaged in financial activities without obtaining prior approval from the Board. A financial holding company is required instead to provide a post-commencement notice to the Board within 30 days after commencing a financial activity or acquiring a company under the new section 4(k).

As noted above, the GLB Act allows the expansion by the Board in consultation with the Secretary of the Treasury of the list of financial activities that are permissible for financial holding companies. Any interested party may request that the Board determine that an activity not listed in the GLB Act is financial in nature or incidental to a financial activity. In making its determination, the Board must consult with the Secretary of the Treasury and must take into account four factors: (1) The purposes of the GLB and BHC Acts; (2) the changes or reasonably expected changes in the marketplace in which financial holding companies compete; (3) the changes or reasonably expected changes in technology for delivering financial services; and (4) whether the proposed activity is necessary or appropriate to allow a financial holding company to compete effectively with companies seeking to provide financial services in the United States, efficiently deliver financial information and services through technological means, and offer customers any available or emerging technological means for using financial services or for the document imaging of data. The Secretary of the Treasury also may at any time recommend that the Board find an activity to be financial in nature or incidental to a financial activity.

In addition to permitting a financial holding company to engage in activities that are financial in nature or incidental to a financial activity, the GLB Act provides that a financial holding company may engage in activities that the Board determines are complementary to existing financial activities and do not pose a substantial risk to the safety or soundness of depository institutions or the financial system generally. The Act requires that a financial holding company receive approval under section 4(j) of the BHC Act prior to conducting or acquiring a company engaged in an activity that the company believes to be complementary to a financial activity.

Interim Rule

In order to implement the provisions of the GLB Act governing the activities in which financial holding companies may engage, the Board is amending Regulation Y by adding sections that (1) list the activities in which a financial holding company may engage; (2) set forth the procedures for engaging in the listed activities; (3) establish procedures for requesting that an additional activity be deemed to be financial in nature or incidental to a financial activity; and (4) establish procedures by which a financial holding company may request that the Board determine that an activity is complementary to a financial activity and receive Board approval to conduct a complementary activity.

Section-by-Section Analysis*Section 225.85—Is Notice To or Approval From the Board Required Prior To Engaging in a Financial Activity?*

Subsection (a)(1) provides that, in most cases, a financial holding company may, without providing prior notice to or obtaining prior approval from the Board, conduct an activity that is financial in nature or incidental to a financial activity (a "financial activity"). A financial holding company may conduct a financial activity by engaging directly in the activity or by acquiring and retaining the shares of any company that is engaged exclusively in one or more financial activities. A financial holding company may conduct a financial activity at any location inside or outside of the United States, subject to the laws of the jurisdiction in which the activity is conducted.

Subsection (a)(2) and (3) provide that a financial holding company may control or acquire more than 5 percent of the voting shares of a company that is not engaged exclusively in financial activities that are permissible for a financial holding company. Under paragraph (2), a financial holding company may acquire control or shares of a company that, in addition to financial activities, engages in other activities permissible for the acquiring financial holding company. In this case, the financial holding company must comply with any approval, notice or other requirement that governs the other activities. Paragraph (3) would allow acquisitions of a company with some impermissible activities, in keeping with the Board's prior practice regarding bank holding company acquisitions of companies that were not engaged exclusively in activities that were permissible for bank holding companies.

The acquisition of a company with limited impermissible activities must meet three requirements. First, the acquired company must be engaged substantially in financial activities and other activities permissible for the financial holding company. A financial holding company that is uncertain about whether a proposed acquisition meets this standard should consult with the Board. Second, in the post-commencement notice provided by the financial holding company to the Board regarding the acquisition, the financial holding company must commit to terminate or divest the impermissible activities, and the company must complete the divestiture or termination within two years of the acquisition. Finally, after being acquired by a financial holding company, the company engaged in impermissible activities may not engage in or acquire a company engaged in any activity that is not permissible for the financial holding company.

Subsection (c) identifies two circumstances under which Board approval still is required to engage in financial activities. First, prior approval in accordance with section 4(j) of the BHC Act and § 225.24 of Regulation Y is required to acquire more than 5 percent of the shares or control of a savings association.¹ In addition, the Board may, in the exercise of its supervisory authority, require a financial holding company to provide prior notice to or obtain prior approval from the Board if circumstances warrant.

¹ The GLB Act did not change in any way the requirement that a company receive prior approval

Section 225.86—What Activities Are Permissible for Financial Holding Companies?

This section consolidates in one place a description of all activities that the GLB Act defines as financial in nature. Subsection (a) states that financial holding companies may engage in any activity that the Board had found to be closely related to banking under section 4(c)(8) of the BHC Act by a regulation or order that is in effect on November 12, 1999. Subsection (a)(1) provides a cross reference to § 225.28, which contains a list of the relevant activities approved by regulation. Subsection (a)(2) lists activities that have been found by Board order in effect on November 12, 1999, to be closely related to banking but that are not otherwise included in the statutory list of permissible financial activities. For example, section 20 activities are not included in the list of activities approved by order because securities underwriting, dealing, and market making now is authorized for financial holding companies in a broader form at section 4(k)(4)(E) of the BHC Act. The Board specifically requests comment on whether there are other activities approved only by Board order that should be listed in § 225.86(a)(2), and whether the scope of any listed activity should be clarified.

All activities in which a financial holding company engages pursuant to subsection (a) must be conducted subject to the terms and conditions contained in Regulation Y and in the Board orders authorizing the activities. Bank holding companies that are not financial holding companies may continue to seek approval to engage in any activity that the Board determined by regulation or order in effect on November 12, 1999, to be closely related to banking. These bank holding companies must continue to use the prior notice and approval procedures listed at §§ 225.22 to 225.24.

Section 4(k)(4)(G) of the BHC Act defines as financial in nature any activity in which a bank holding company may engage outside the United States and that the Board has determined in regulations prescribed or interpretations issued under section 4(c)(13) of the BHC Act that are in effect on November 11, 1999, to be usual in connection with the transaction of banking or other financial services abroad. Section 225.86(b) lists the three activities that have been found by the Board to be usual in connection with the transaction of banking or other financial operations abroad as listed in Regulation K (see 12 CFR 211.5(d)) that are not otherwise permissible for a bank holding company under the Board's Regulation Y or included on the statutory list of financial activities.

These activities are management consulting services, operating a travel agency, and organizing, sponsoring, or managing a mutual fund.

In each case, the rule describes certain limitations that apply to the conduct of the activity. In the case of management consulting services, the services may be provided to any person on nonfinancial matters. However, the services must be advisory and not allow the financial holding company to control the person to whom the services are provided.

A financial holding company may also operate a travel agency in connection with financial services offered by the holding company or by others. Finally, a fund organized, sponsored or managed by a financial holding company may not exercise managerial control over the companies in which the fund invests and the financial holding company must reduce its ownership of the fund, if any, to less than 25 percent of the equity of the fund within one year of sponsoring the fund (or such additional period as the Board permits).

The remainder of the activities listed at § 211.5(d) have been either (1) authorized for financial holding companies in a broader form by the GLB Act (e.g., underwriting, distributing, and dealing in securities and underwriting various types of insurance); or (2) authorized in the same or a broader form in Regulation Y (e.g., data processing activities, real and personal property leasing, and acting as agent, broker, or adviser in leasing property). The Board notes that section 4(k)(4)(G) of the Act and this interim rule only authorize financial holding companies to engage in the activities that are listed in § 211.5(d) of Regulation K as interpreted by the Board, not in activities that the Board has approved in individual orders under section 4(c)(13).

Subsection (c) incorporates by reference the remaining activities authorized by section 4(k)(4) of the BHC Act. Those activities include activities that previously have not been permissible for bank holding companies, such as acting as principal, agent, or broker for purposes of insuring, guaranteeing, or indemnifying against loss, harm, damage, illness, disability, or death, and issuing annuity products. Permissible insurance activities as principal include reinsuring insurance products. A financial holding company acting under that section may conduct insurance activities without regard to the restrictions on the insurance activities imposed on bank holding companies under section 4(c)(8).

The GLB Act also authorizes underwriting, dealing in, and making a market in securities without regard to whether such securities may be sold by a bank. This activity includes underwriting or distributing shares of open-end investment companies commonly referred to as mutual funds.

Securities underwriting activities conducted under section 4(k)(4)(E) rather than section 4(c)(8) may be conducted without regard to the 25 percent revenue limitation that is applicable to section 20 subsidiaries of bank holding companies that engage in securities underwriting and dealing under section 4(c)(8). In addition, dealing may be done without regard to the 5 percent limitation on ownership of voting securities.

In a separate proposal, the Board has determined that the operating standards applicable to section 20 companies do not apply to financial holding companies that engage in securities underwriting, dealing, and market making under section 4(k)(4)(E) of the BHC Act with two exceptions. First, intra-day extensions of credit to a securities firm from an affiliated bank or thrift or U.S. branch or agency of a foreign bank must be on market terms consistent with section 23B of the Federal Reserve Act ("FRA"). Second, the limitations of sections 23A and 23B of the FRA apply to covered transactions between a U.S. branch or agency of a foreign bank and a U.S. securities affiliate. The operating standards and revenue limit continue to apply to bank holding companies that are not financial holding companies, and to financial holding companies that continue to conduct securities activities pursuant to section 4(c)(8) of the BHC Act.

In cases where a financial holding company already has approval under section 4(c)(8) to engage in an activity now available in an expanded scope under section 4(k), the company must provide the Board with a post-commencement notice as described in § 225.87 informing the Board that the company has expanded the scope of the activity in accordance with section 4(k). Unless otherwise notified by the Board, the financial holding company may then conduct the activity subject to the limitations set forth in section 4(k)(4)(A) through (E), § 225.86 and other applicable laws governing the activity.

Any financial holding company that feels it needs specific relief from a commitment or condition to conduct an activity in accordance with section 4(k)(4) may request in writing a determination that the condition or commitment is no longer appropriate. The Board specifically seeks comment on the types of commitments and conditions the Board has imposed on financial holding companies under section 4(c)(8) that may hinder their ability to conduct expanded activities under section 4(k)(4).

The Board reminds financial holding companies that commitments and conditions that relate to activities for which the GLB Act has not provided any additional authority, such as data processing, remain in effect. Moreover, the Board notes that this action does not relieve any financial holding company of its obligation to conduct each activity in accordance with relevant state and federal law governing the activity.

Should a company that has notified the Board that the company has expanded a section 4(c)(8) activity consistent with section 4(k)(4) choose at a later date to conduct the activity under section 4(c)(8), the company should consult with Board staff to determine the conditions under which the activity should be conducted.

The GLB Act also allows a financial holding company to engage in merchant banking activities. This activity involves directly or indirectly acquiring shares, assets, or ownership interests of a company engaged in an activity that is impermissible for a financial holding company, whether or not that interest constitutes control of the company. The Board and the Secretary of the Treasury have separately proposed interim rules regarding the conduct of this activity that are separate from this rule.

The GLB Act requires the Board to define the extent to which three activities listed in section 4(k)(5) of the BHC Act are financial in nature or incidental to a financial activity. The Board expects to initiate a rulemaking to provide further guidance concerning the 4(k)(5) activities in the near future.

An activity that is not described in the list of activities and references in this section is not a financial activity unless the Board, in consultation with the Treasury, determines that the activity is financial in nature or incidental to a financial activity. The procedures for obtaining a Board determination are described in detail in the analysis of § 225.88 below. That section also contains a procedure by which a financial holding company that is uncertain about the scope of an authorized activity may request an advisory opinion from the Board.

Section 225.87—Is Notice to the Board Required After Engaging in a Financial Activity?

Section 4(k)(6)(A) of the BHC Act generally provides that a financial holding company may engage in financial activities or acquire companies engaged in financial activities pursuant to section 4(k)(4) by providing the Board with a written notice that describes the activity commenced or the name of and activity conducted by the acquired company, as appropriate, within 30 days of commencing the activity or consummating the acquisition.

Section 225.87 implements the post-commencement notice procedure for applicable activities commenced pursuant to section 4(k)(4). As a general matter, § 225.87(a) states that financial holding companies engaging in activities and making acquisitions listed in § 225.86 need only provide a simple written notice to the appropriate Federal Reserve Bank within 30 days after commencing the activity or making the acquisition. The notice must describe the activity commenced and the subsidiaries engaged in the activity, or identify the company acquired and describe the activities such company conducts, as relevant.

Subsection (b) describes two circumstances in which no notice to the Board is required in order to engage in an activity. First, no notice to the Board is required when a financial holding company acquires shares of a company without acquiring control of the company. The second exception applies to a financial holding company that is engaged in securities activities under 4(k)(4)(E), that makes merchant banking investments under 4(k)(4)(H), or that makes insurance company investments under 4(k)(4)(I) and has provided the System with the appropriate notice regarding the relevant activity. Under those circumstances, the company need only submit a notice in connection with the acquisition of the shares of any company as part of the securities, merchant banking or insurance investment activity if the cost of the acquisition exceeds the lesser of 5 percent of the financial holding company's Tier 1 capital or $200 million.

Section 225.88—How To Request the Board To Determine That an Activity Is Financial in Nature or Incidental to a Financial Activity?

The GLB Act provides that the Board may determine that activities are financial in nature or incidental to financial activities after consulting with the Secretary of the Treasury. Subsection (a) provides that requests for a determination that a new activity is a financial activity may be made by a financial holding company or by any other interested party.

A request for a determination that an activity is financial in nature or incidental to a financial activity must identify and define the activity for which the determination is sought. The request must also provide specific information about what the activity would involve and how it would be conducted, and explain in detail why the activity should be considered financial in nature or incidental to a financial activity. Importantly, the request must provide information that is sufficient to support a Board finding that the activity is financial. The request also must provide any additional information required by the Board.

On receiving a request, the Board will provide the Secretary of the Treasury with a copy of the proposal and consult with the Secretary in accordance with section 4(k)(2) of the BHC Act. The Board also may request public comment on the proposal. The Board will endeavor to act on all requests for a determination within 60 days of completion of the consultative process and the close of the public comment period, if applicable. The Board's initial determination regarding a particular activity will clarify whether a financial holding company that subsequently seeks to engage in the activity may do so using the post-commencement notice procedure of § 225.87, or whether a different notification or approval requirement applies.

Section 225.88(e) establishes a procedure by which financial holding companies may request from the Board an advisory opinion concerning whether a specific proposed activity falls within the scope of an activity that is permissible for a financial holding company. Such requests must be in writing and must provide detailed information about the proposed activity, including an explanation that supports a finding that the activity is within the scope of a permissible activity. The Board will provide an advisory opinion to the requester within 45 days of receiving a complete written request.

Section 225.89—How To Request Approval To Engage in an Activity That Is Complementary to a Financial Activity?

The GLB Act provides that a financial holding company may engage in an activity that the Board determines to be complementary to a financial activity. The legislative history of the GLB Act suggests that complementary activities are activities that are closely associated with a financial activity or that are normally conducted with or flow from a financial activity. However, the GLB Act itself does not define what qualifies as a complementary activity. The Board therefore requests comment on the definition of the term of “complementary activity.”

The GLB Act provides that a financial holding company must obtain prior Board approval in accordance with section 4(j) of the BHC Act to engage in or acquire a company engaged in any activity that the financial holding company believes to be complementary to a financial activity. In addition to applying the standards under section 4(j), the Board must determine that the activity is complementary to a financial activity and would not pose a substantial risk to the safety or soundness of depository institutions or the financial system generally.

Section 225.87(b) implements this requirement by requiring that a request for prior approval to engage in a complementary activity provide a detailed description of the proposed complementary activity (including the projected scope and relative size of the activity), identify the particular financial activity for which the proposed activity would be complementary, and provide a detailed explanation for why the proposed activity should be considered complementary to a financial activity. The request also must discuss the impact of the proposed activity on the safety and soundness of depository institutions controlled by the financial holding company and on the financial system generally. In addition, the request must describe the potential adverse effects that conducting the activity could raise and explain measures the financial holding company intends to take to address those concerns. Requests regarding complementary activities also must include any financial, managerial, and other information required by the Board. The Board will act on requests to engage in complementary activities within the time period described in section 4(j) of the BHC Act.

The Board invites comment on all aspects of the interim rule, and particularly on the items specifically identified in the foregoing discussion.

Section 225.24—Procedures for Other Nonbanking Proposals

The Board has deleted the existing text of subsection (a)(3), which discusses the information requirements for proposals to engage in activities that are not listed in § 225.28. The GLB Act amends section 4(c)(8) to remove the Board's authority to authorize additional nonbanking activities for bank holding companies under that section. Therefore, subsection (a)(3) is unnecessary and has been deleted.

Regulatory Flexibility Act

In accordance with section 3(a) of the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 603(a)), the Board must publish an initial regulatory flexibility analysis with this interim regulation. This rule implements the provisions of Title I of the GLB Act that allow financial holding companies to engage in a broad range of financial activities by using a streamlined notification procedure. In most cases, the company need only provide the Board a brief written notice that identifies the activity commenced and the subsidiary that conducts the activity within 30 days of commencing an activity.

In addition, the rule establishes procedures by which a party can request that the Board determine additional activities are financial in nature or incidental to a financial activity and procedures by which a financial holding company can seek approval to engage in an activity it proposes to be complementary to a financial activity. These provisions are designed to require only the information necessary for the Board to evaluate the status of a proposed activity.

The procedures described in this rule apply only to bank holding companies that voluntarily elect to be financial holding companies, and those procedures apply to all financial holding companies regardless of their size. For financial holding companies that seek to engage in activities that previously were permissible under section 4(c)(8) of the BHC Act, the procedures described in this rule represent a reduction in the amount of paperwork required to engage in such activities. In addition, the notification procedures applicable to financial holding companies and the procedures for requesting the Board to determine that an activity is complementary are specified by the GLB Act itself. The Board has attempted in this rule to implement the requirements of the statute by requiring from a financial holding company only that information that is necessary for the Board to discharge its statutory responsibility. The Board specifically requests comment on the likely burden this interim rule will impose on financial holding companies that seek to engage in financial activities or to propose that the Board authorize additional activities as permissible for a financial holding company.

Administrative Procedure Act

The Board will make this interim rule effective on March 11, 2000, without first reviewing public comments. Pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 553, the Board finds that it is impracticable to review public comments prior to the effective date of the interim rule and that there is good cause to make the rule effective on March 11, 2000. Specifically, the rule sets forth requirements relating to activities that are permissible for financial holding companies as of March 11, 2000, due to statutory changes that become effective on that date. The Board is seeking comment on the interim rule and will amend the rule as appropriate after reviewing all comments it receives.

Paperwork Reduction Act

In accordance with section 3506 of the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. Ch. 35; 5 CFR 1320 Appendix A.1), the Board reviewed the proposed rule under the authority delegated to the Board by the Office of Management and Budget.

The collection of information requirements in this proposed rulemaking are found in 12 CFR 225.87, 225.88, and 225.89. This information is required to evidence compliance with the requirements of Title I of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act (Pub. L. 106–103, 113 Stat. 1338 (1999)) which amends section 4 of the Bank Holding Company Act (12 U.S.C. 1843). The respondents are financial holding companies.

The notice cited in 12 CFR 225.87(a) provides that a financial holding company that commences an activity or acquires shares of a company engaged in an activity listed in § 225.86, must notify the appropriate Federal Reserve Bank in writing within 30 calendar days. See 12 CFR 225.87(a) for specific details on the content of the notice. The Federal Reserve estimates that financial holding companies will make 500 filings of this notice annually and that it would take approximately 1 hour to complete this notification. This would result in an estimated annual burden of 500 hours. Based on a rate of $20 per hour, the annual cost to the public for this information collection would be $10,000.

Financial holding companies requesting the Board's determination that an activity is financial in nature or incidental to a financial activity must provide to the Board the information described in 12 CFR 225.88(b). Financial holding companies may request an advisory opinion from the Board about whether a specific proposed activity falls within the scope of an activity listed in 12 CFR 225.86 as financial in nature or incidental to a financial activity by submitting the information described in 12 CFR 225.88(e). Financial holding companies that seek prior approval to engage in an activity that the financial holding company believes is complementary to a financial activity must provide to the Board the information identified in 12 CFR 225.89(a). The Federal Reserve estimates that only 25 financial holding companies would file the information requested in these sections annually and that it would take approximately 1 hour to complete each information collection. This would result in estimated annual burden of 25 hours. Based on a rate of $20 per hour, the annual cost to the public for this information collection would be $500.

The Board requests comment on the accuracy of these burden estimates. These notifications and requests will have no formal reporting form and may be submitted in the form of a letter. They will be assigned the agency form number FR 4012. The Federal Reserve may not conduct or sponsor, and an organization is not required to respond to, these information collections unless they display currently valid OMB control numbers. The OMB control number for these information collections will be 7100-0292.

A bank holding company may request confidentiality for the information contained in these information collections pursuant to section (b)(4) and (b)(6) of the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. 552(b)(4) and (b)(6)).

Comments are invited on: (a) Whether the collections of information are necessary for the proper performance of the Federal Reserve's functions, including whether the information has practical utility; (b) the accuracy of the Federal Reserve's estimate of the burden of the information collections, including the cost of compliance; (c) ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and (d) ways to minimize the burden of information collections on respondents, including through the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology. Comments on the collections of information should be sent to the Office of Management and Budget, Paperwork Reduction Project, Washington, DC 20503, with copies of such comments to be sent to Mary M. West, Federal Reserve Board Clearance Officer, Division of Research and Statistics, Mail Stop 97, Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, Washington, DC 20551.

For the reasons set out in the preamble, the Board amends 12 CFR part 225 as follows:

PART 225—BANK HOLDING COMPANIES AND CHANGE IN BANK CONTROL (REGULATION Y)

1. The authority citation for part 225 is revised to read as follows:

Authority: 12 U.S.C. 1817(j)(13), 1818, 1828(o), 1831(i), 1831p-1, 1843(c)(8), 1843(k), 1844(b), 1972(l), 3106, 3108, 3310, 3331-3351, 3907, and 3909.

2. In § 225.24, remove paragraph (a)(3).

3. In subpart I, add §§ 225.85 through 225.89 to read as follows:

§ 225.85 Is notice to or approval from the Board required prior to engaging in a financial activity?

(a) No prior approval required generally—(1) In general. A financial holding company and any subsidiary (other than a depository institution or subsidiary of a depository institution) of the financial holding company may engage in any activity listed in § 225.86, or acquire control or shares of a company engaged exclusively in any activity listed in § 225.86, without providing prior notice to or obtaining prior approval from the Board unless required under paragraph (c) of this section.

(2) May a financial holding company acquire a company engaged in other permissible activities? In addition to the activities listed in § 225.86, a company acquired or to be acquired by a financial holding company under paragraph (a)(1) of this section may engage in activities otherwise permissible for a financial holding company under this part in accordance with any applicable notice, approval, or other requirement.

(3) May a financial holding company acquire a financial company engaged in limited nonfinancial activities? A financial holding company may control or acquire more than 5 percent of the voting shares of a company that is not engaged exclusively in activities that are financial in nature or incidental to a financial activity or otherwise permissible for a financial holding company if:

(i) Substantially all of the activities conducted by the company are financial in nature, incidental to a financial activity, or otherwise permissible for the financial holding company;

(ii) As part of the notice provided under § 225.87, the financial holding company commits to the Board to terminate or divest all activities that are not financial in nature or incidental to a financial activity or otherwise permissible for the financial holding company and the financial holding company completes that termination or divestiture within 2 years of the date the financial holding company acquires the company; and

(iii) Following the acquisition of the company by the financial holding company, the company does not engage in or acquire shares of any company engaged in any activity that is not permissible for the financial holding company.

(b) In what locations may a financial holding company conduct financial activities? A financial holding company may conduct any activity listed in § 225.86 at any location in the United States or at any location outside of the United States subject to the laws of the jurisdiction in which the activity is conducted.

(c) Under what circumstances is prior notice to the Board required? (1) Acquisition of more than 5 percent of the shares of a savings association. A financial holding company must obtain Board approval in accordance with section 4(j) of the Bank Holding Company Act (12 U.S.C. 1843(j)) and either § 225.23 or § 225.24, as appropriate, prior to acquiring control or more than 5 percent of the voting shares of a savings association.

(2) Supervisory actions. The Board may, if appropriate in supervisory cases, including under § 225.82(d) or § 225.83(d) or other relevant authority, require a financial holding company to provide prior notice to or obtain prior approval from the Board to engage in any activity or acquire shares or control of any company.

§ 225.86 What activities are permissible for financial holding companies?

The following activities are financial in nature or incidental to a financial activity:

(a) Activities that were closely related to banking. (1) Any activity that the Board had determined by regulation prior to November 12, 1999, to be so closely related to banking as to be a proper incident thereto, subject to the terms and conditions contained in this part, unless modified by the Board. These activities are listed in § 225.28.

(2) Any activity that the Board had determined by an order that was in effect on November 12, 1999, to be so closely related to banking as to be a proper incident thereto, subject to the terms and conditions contained in this part and those in the authorizing orders. These activities are:

(i) Providing administrative and other services to mutual funds (see, e.g., Societe Generale, 84 Federal Reserve Bulletin 680 (1998));

(ii) Owning shares of a securities exchange (J.P. Morgan & Co, Inc., and UBS AG, 86 Federal Reserve Bulletin 61 (2000));

(iii) Acting as a certification authority for digital signatures (Bayerische Hypo- und Vereinsbank AG, et.al., 86 Federal Reserve Bulletin 56 (2000));

(iv) Providing employment histories to third parties for use in making credit decisions and to depository institutions and their affiliates for use in the ordinary course of business (Norwest Corporation, 81 Federal Reserve Bulletin 732 (1995));

(v) Check cashing and wire transmission services (Midland Bank, PLC, 76 Federal Reserve Bulletin 860 (1990) (check cashing); Norwest Corporation, 81 Federal Reserve Bulletin 1130 (1995) (money transmission));

(vi) In connection with offering banking services, providing notary public services, selling postage stamps and postage-paid envelopes, providing vehicle registration services, and selling public transportation tickets and tokens (Popular, Inc., 84 Federal Reserve Bulletin 481 (1998)); and

(vii) Real estate title abstracting (The First National Company, 81 Federal Reserve Bulletin 805 (1995)).

(b) Activities that are usual in connection with the transaction of banking abroad. Any activity that the Board has determined by regulation in effect on November 11, 1999, to be usual in connection with the transaction of banking or other financial operations abroad (see § 211.5(d) of this chapter), subject to the terms and conditions in part 211 and Board interpretations in effect on that date regarding the scope and conduct of the activity. In addition to the activities listed in paragraphs (a) and (c) of this section, these activities are:

(1) Providing management consulting services, including to any person with respect to nonfinancial matters, so long as the management consulting services are advisory and do not allow the financial holding company to control the person to which the services are provided;

(2) Operating a travel agency in connection with financial services offered by the financial holding company or others; and

(3) Organizing, sponsoring, and managing a mutual fund, so long as:

(i) The fund does not exercise managerial control over the entities in which the fund invests; and

(ii) The financial holding company reduces its ownership in the fund, if any, to less than 25 percent of the equity of the fund within one year of sponsoring the fund or such additional period as the Board permits.

(c) Activities permitted under section 4(k)(4) of the Bank Holding Company Act (12 U.S.C. 1843(k)(4)). Any activity defined to be financial in nature under sections 4(k)(4)(A) through (E), (H) and (I) of the Bank Holding Company Act (12 U.S.C. 1843(k)(4)(A) through (E) (H) and (I)).

§ 225.87 Is notice to the Board required after engaging in a financial activity?

(a) Post-commencement notice is generally required to engage in a financial activity. A financial holding company that commences an activity or acquires shares of a company engaged in an activity listed in § 225.86 must notify the appropriate Federal Reserve Bank in writing within 30 calendar days after commencing the activity or consummating the acquisition. The notice must describe, as relevant:

(1) The activity commenced and the identity of each subsidiary engaged in the activity; or

(2) The identity of the company acquired and the activities conducted by the company.

(b) Are there any cases in which notice to the Board is not required?

(1) Acquisitions that do not result in control of a company. A notice under paragraph (a) of this section is not required to acquire shares of a company if, following the acquisition, the financial holding company does not control the company.

(2) Conduct of certain investment activities. Except as otherwise provided in this part or as determined by the Board in the exercise of its supervisory authority, no post-commencement notice is required as part of the conduct by a financial holding company or its subsidiary of:

(i) Securities underwriting, dealing, or market making activities as described in section 4(k)(4)(E) of the Bank Holding Company Act (12 U.S.C. 1843(k)(4)(E));

(ii) Merchant banking activities conducted pursuant to section 4(k)(4)(H) of the Bank Holding Company Act (12 U.S.C. 1843(k)(4)(H)), except as provided in § 225.174(d); or

(iii) Insurance company investment activities conducted pursuant to section 4(k)(4)(I) of the Bank Holding Company Act (12 U.S.C. 1843(k)(4)(I)), so long as the financial holding company provides the notice described in § 225.174(d) in connection with any insurance company investment that meets the thresholds in that section.

(3) Condition for exceptions. The exception provided in paragraph (b)(2) of this section applies only if the financial holding company previously has provided notice to the Board under paragraph (a) of this section that the financial holding company has commenced or acquired control of a company engaged in the relevant activity for which an exception is claimed.

§ 225.88 How to request the Board to determine that an activity is financial in nature or incidental to a financial activity?

(a) Requests regarding activities that may be financial in nature or incidental to a financial activity. A financial holding company or other interested party may request a determination from the Board that an activity not listed in § 225.86 is financial in nature or incidental to a financial activity.

(b) What information must the request contain? A request submitted under this section must be in writing and must:

(1) Identify and define the activity for which the determination is sought, specifically describing what the activity would involve and how the activity would be conducted;

(2) Explain in detail why the activity should be considered financial in nature or incidental to a financial activity; and

(3) Provide information supporting the requested determination and any other information required by the Board concerning the proposed activity.

(c) What action will the Board take after receiving a request? (1) Consultation with the Secretary of the Treasury. Upon receipt of the request, the Board will provide the Secretary of the Treasury a copy of the request and consult with the Secretary in accordance with section 4(k)(2)(A) of the Bank Holding Company Act (12 U.S.C. 1843(k)(2)(A)).

(2) Public notice. The Board may, as appropriate and after consultation with the Secretary, publish a description of the proposal in the Federal Register with a request for public comment.

(d) When will the Board act on a request? The Board will endeavor to make a decision on any request filed under paragraph (a) of this section within 60 days following the completion of both the consultative process described in paragraph (c)(1) of this section and the public comment period, if any.

(e) What should a financial holding company do if it has a question about the scope of a financial activity? (1) Written request. A financial holding company may request an advisory opinion from the Board about whether a specific proposed activity falls within the scope of an activity listed in § 225.86 as financial in nature or incidental to a financial activity. The request must be submitted in writing and must contain:

(i) A detailed description of the particular activity in which the company proposes to engage or the product or service the company proposes to provide;

(ii) An explanation supporting an interpretation regarding the scope of the permissible financial activity; and

(iii) Any additional information requested by the Board regarding the activity.

(2) Board response. The Board will provide an advisory opinion within 45 days of receiving a complete written request under paragraph (b) of this section.

§ 225.89 How to request approval to engage in an activity that is complementary to a financial activity?

(a) Prior Board approval is required. A financial holding company that seeks to engage in or acquire a company engaged in an activity that the financial holding company believes is complementary to a financial activity must obtain prior approval from the Board in accordance with section 4(j) of the Bank Holding Company Act (12 U.S.C. 1843 (j)). The notice must be in writing and must:

(1) Identify and define the proposed complementary activity, specifically describing what the activity would involve and how the activity would be conducted;

(2) Identify the financial activity for which the proposed activity would be complementary and provide information sufficient to support a finding that the proposed activity should be considered complementary to the identified financial activity;

(3) Describe the scope and relative size of the proposed activity, as measured by the percentage of the projected financial holding company revenues expected to be derived from

and assets associated with conducting the activity;

(4) Discuss the risks that conducting the activity may reasonably be expected to pose to the safety and soundness of the subsidiary depository institutions of the financial holding company and to the financial system generally;

(5) Describe the potential adverse effects, including potential conflicts of interest, decreased or unfair competition, or other risks, that conducting the activity could raise, and explain the measures the financial holding company proposes to take to address those potential effects; and

(6) Provide any information about the financial and managerial resources of the financial holding company and any other information requested by the Board.

(b) What standards will the Board apply in evaluating the notice? In evaluating a notice to engage in a complementary activity, the Board must consider whether:

(1) The proposed activity is complementary to a financial activity;

(2) The proposed activity would pose a substantial risk to the safety or soundness of depository institutions or the financial system generally; and

(3) The proposal meets the standards in section 4(j)(2) of the Bank Holding Company Act (12 U.S.C. 1843(j)(2)).

(c) How and when will the Board act on a notice? The Board will inform the financial holding company in writing of the Board's determination regarding the proposed activity within the period described in section 4(j) of the Bank Holding Company Act (12 U.S.C. 1843(j)).

By order of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, March 10, 2000.

Dated: March 10, 2000.

BILLING CODE 6210-01-P

FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM

12 CFR Part 225

[Regulation Y; Docket No. R-1063]

Bank Holding Companies and Change in Bank Control; Securities Underwriting, Dealing, and Market-Making Activities of Financial Holding Companies

AGENCY: Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

ACTION: Interim rule with request for public comments.

SUMMARY: Underwriting, dealing in, and making a market in securities are financial activities permissible for financial holding companies under the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act. Bank holding companies may currently engage in these activities only to a limited extent through so-called section 20 subsidiaries. Under the Board's current rules, section 20 subsidiaries are subject to eight operating standards imposed by the Board in order to address certain potential risks and conflicts associated with the affiliation of a bank and a securities firm.

The Board is adopting this interim rule to impose two of these operating standards on financial holding companies engaged in securities underwriting, dealing or market-making activities. Under the interim rule, intraday extensions of credit by a bank or thrift, or U.S. branch or agency of a foreign bank, to a securities affiliate engaged in securities underwriting, dealing, or market-making must be on market terms. In addition, foreign banks that are financial holding companies or that are treated as financial holding companies will be required to comply with certain affiliate transaction restrictions with respect to lending and securities purchase transactions between a U.S. branch or agency of a foreign bank and a securities affiliate engaged in securities underwriting, dealing, or market-making.

DATES: The interim rule is effective on March 11, 2000. Comments must be received by May 12, 2000.

ADDRESSES: Comments, which should refer to docket number R-1063, may be mailed to Ms. Jennifer J. Johnson, Secretary, Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, 20th Street and Constitution Avenue, NW., Washington, DC 20551 or mailed electronically to regs.comments@federalreserve.gov. Comments addressed to Ms. Johnson also may be delivered to the Board's mail room between the hours of 8:45 a.m. and 5:15 p.m. and, outside of those hours, to the Board's security control room. Both the mail room and the security control room are accessible from the Eccles Building courtyard entrance, located on 20th Street between Constitution Avenue and C Street, NW. Members of the public may inspect comments in Room MP-500 of the Martin Building between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. on weekdays.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act differs from prior regulatory and statutory schemes in the manner that it addresses potential risks to a depository institution associated with securities and other activities conducted by affiliates. The current section 20 operating standards,¹ like the bills to repeal the Glass-Steagall Act that were considered in the late 1980s and early 1990s contain detailed restrictions on relationships and transactions between depository institutions and securities affiliates. The Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act relies instead on requirements that each depository institution affiliated with a securities firm be and remain well capitalized and well managed. The Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act also relies on functional regulation of the securities firm by the SEC, full supervision of the depository institution by the appropriate federal banking agency, and umbrella supervision of the overall organization by the Board to identify and address potential risks to the depository institution associated with the securities and other activities in the organization.

The Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act grants the Board authority to impose restrictions or requirements on relationships or transactions between a depository institution and any affiliate. The Board may impose a prudential limitation if the Board finds that the limitation is appropriate to avoid a significant risk to the safety and soundness of the depository institution or the Federal deposit insurance funds, to avoid other adverse effects or to prevent evasions of the banking laws.² The Board believes that most of the concerns that are raised by the affiliation of a securities firm with a financial holding company are addressed by the requirements of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, other banking laws and regulations, and securities laws and regulations.

Two concerns that the Board believes are not addressed by current law or regulation relate to intra-day extensions of credit to a securities firm by an affiliated depository institution, and to transactions between a U.S. branch or agency of a foreign bank that elects to become or be treated as a financial holding company, and an affiliated securities firm.

Intra-day extensions of credit: One operating standard applicable to section 20 subsidiaries ("operating standard 5") requires that intra-day extensions of credit to a section 20 subsidiary by an affiliated bank or thrift, or U.S. branch or agency of a foreign bank be on market terms consistent with section 23B of the Federal Reserve Act. In considering whether to apply this limitation to financial holding companies, the Board notes that the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act requires the Board, within the next 18 months, to address how the restrictions in section 23A apply to intra-day extensions of credit to all affiliates. Until such time as that effort is complete, however, the Board believes that operating standard 5 remains important to ensure that intra-day extensions of credit by a depository institution to an affiliated securities firm for clearing or other purposes are not subsidizing the activities of the securities firm to the detriment of the depository institution affiliate. Accordingly, the Board is applying the limitations in operating standard 5 to financial holding companies and foreign banks treated as financial holding companies to cover intra-day extensions of credit to their subsidiary securities firms from their subsidiary banks or thrifts or U.S. branches or agencies at least until such time as the analysis regarding the application of section 23A to intra-day extensions of credit is complete.

Transactions with U.S. branches and agencies of foreign banks: Another operating standard ("operating standard 8") applicable to section 20 subsidiaries requires that a U.S. branch or agency of a foreign bank comply with sections 23A and 23B of the Federal Reserve Act³ when extending credit to a section 20 affiliate, or when purchasing securities for which a section 20 affiliate is a principal underwriter.⁴ A branch or agency also may not advertise or suggest that it is responsible for the obligations of a section 20 affiliate. Operating standard 8 permits a branch or agency of a foreign bank to engage in funding and securities purchase transactions with a section 20 affiliate subject to the same restrictions applicable to a U.S. depository institution.

The purpose of sections 23A and 23B of the Federal Reserve Act, which limit credit and other transactions between a bank and its affiliate, is to limit the possibility that the risks of activities conducted in a nonbank affiliate of a depository institution be transferred to the depository institution. The Board originally applied lending restrictions to transactions between U.S. branches and agencies of a foreign bank and a section 20 affiliate as a prudential limitation, recognizing that U.S. branches and agencies are part of the U.S. financial structure.⁵ In addition, the Board adopted operating standard 8 because sections 23A and 23B apply to U.S. banks and thrifts, and the operating standard ensures competitive equity between foreign banks and U.S. banking organizations in the funding of section 20 affiliates. These are the types of concerns that section 114 of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act would require the Board to consider in imposing restrictions on foreign banks that become financial holding companies.

Under the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, foreign banks, as well as U.S. bank holding companies, that become financial holding companies will be able to engage in a broader range of securities activities than is permitted now. In view of this, the prudential and competitive equity concerns that led the Board to adopt operating standard 8 would justify applying that prudential limit in the case of a foreign bank that becomes a financial holding company. This restriction would apply only to transactions between a securities affiliate that underwrites, deals in, or makes a market in securities, and a U.S. branch or agency of a foreign bank, and not to the foreign bank itself.

Customer disclosures: The Board is not at this time imposing any customer disclosure requirements on financial holding companies with respect to the activities of a subsidiary securities firm engaged in securities underwriting, dealing, or market-making pursuant to section 4(k)(4)(E) of the BHC Act. To the extent that the securities firm makes a sale to a customer on the premises of a depository institution, or through a depository institution employee, or as a result of a referral by a depository institution, it will be required to make the disclosures contained in the Interagency Statement on Retail Sales of Nondeposit Investment Products (Interagency Statement).

Whether or not the activities of subsidiary securities firms of financial holding companies are covered by the Interagency Statement, the Board expects financial holding companies to take all necessary steps to ensure that customers are not confused about the nature of investment products they are purchasing. If the Board becomes aware that customer confusion is occurring, or that action is necessary to prevent abuses, the Board may impose additional disclosure requirements on financial holding companies to address these issues.

Regulatory Flexibility Act

In accordance with the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 601–612), the Board must publish an initial regulatory flexibility analysis with this interim regulation. The purpose of the interim rule is to address concerns raised by the affiliation of a securities firm with a financial holding company that are not otherwise addressed by current law or regulation. The rule applies only to bank holding companies and foreign banks that voluntarily elect to become or be treated as financial holding companies under the Bank Holding Company Act as amended by the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, and also engage in certain securities activities. The interim rule applies to all financial holding companies regardless of size, and requires them to comply with certain restrictions that already apply to bank holding companies that control section 20 subsidiaries engaged in securities activities. The rule applies fewer restrictions to financial holding companies seeking to engage in securities activities than apply to bank holding companies that control section 20 subsidiaries and thus represents a reduction in the limitations on engaging in certain securities underwriting and dealing activities. The Board specifically seeks comment on the likely burden this interim rule will impose on small business entities and financial holding companies that seek to engage in securities activities.

Administrative Procedure Act

The Board will make this interim rule effective on March 11, 2000 without first reviewing public comments. Pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 553, the Board finds that it is impracticable to review public comments prior to the effective date of the interim rule, and that there is good cause to make the interim rule effective on March 11, 2000, due to the fact that the rule sets forth a requirement relating to activities that financial holding companies will be able to engage in on March 11, 2000, due to statutory changes that become effective on that date. The Board is seeking public comment on the interim rule and will amend the rule as appropriate after reviewing the comments.

Paperwork Reduction Act

In accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3506; 5 CFR 1320 Appendix A.1), the Board reviewed the interim rule under the authority delegated to the Board by the Office of Management and Budget. No collections of information pursuant to the Paperwork Reduction Act are contained in the interim rule.

For the reasons set out in the preamble, the Board amends 12 CFR part 225 as follows:

PART 225—BANK HOLDING COMPANY AND CHANGE IN BANK CONTROL (REGULATION Y)

1. The authority citation for part 225 continues to read as follows:

Authority: 12 U.S.C. 1817(j)(13), 1818, 1828(o), 1831(i), 1831p–1, 1843(c)(8), 1844(b), 1972(1), 3106, 3108, 3310, 3331–3351, 3907, and 3909.

2. Section 225.4 is amended by adding a new paragraph (g) to read as follows:

§ 225.4 Corporate practices.

(g) Requirements for financial holding companies engaged in securities underwriting, dealing, or market-making activities. (1) Any intra-day extension of credit by a bank or thrift, or U.S. branch or agency of a foreign bank to an affiliated company engaged in underwriting, dealing in, or making a market in securities pursuant to section 4(k)(4)(E) of the Bank Holding Company Act (12 U.S.C. 1843(k)(4)(E)) must be on market terms consistent with section 23B of the Federal Reserve Act. (12 U.S.C. 371c–1).

(2) A foreign bank that is or is treated as a financial holding company under this part shall ensure that:

(i) Any extension of credit by any U.S. branch or agency of such foreign bank to an affiliated company engaged in underwriting, dealing in, or making a market in securities pursuant to section 4(k)(4)(E) of the Bank Holding Company Act (12 U.S.C. 1843(k)(4)(E)), conforms to sections 23A and 23B of the Federal Reserve Act (12 U.S.C. 371c and 371c–1) as if the branch or agency were a member bank;

(ii) Any purchase by any U.S. branch or agency of such foreign bank, as principal or fiduciary, of securities for which a securities affiliate described in paragraph (g)(2)(i) of this section is a principal underwriter conforms to sections 23A and 23B of the Federal Reserve Act (12 U.S.C. 371c and 371c–1) as if the branch or agency were a member bank; and

(iii) Its U.S. branches and agencies not advertise or suggest that they are responsible for the obligations of a securities affiliate described in paragraph (g)(2)(i) of this section, consistent with section 23B(c) of the Federal Reserve Act (12 U.S.C. 371c–1(c)) as if the branches or agencies were member banks.

By order of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, March 10, 2000.

Robert deV. Frierson,

Associate Secretary of the Board.

IFR Altitudes; Miscellaneous Amendments

AGENCY: Federal Aviation Administration (FAA), DOT.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: This amendment adopts miscellaneous amendments to the required IFR (instrument flight rules) altitudes and changeover points for certain Federal airways, jet routes, or direct routes for which a minimum or maximum en route authorized IFR altitude is prescribed. This regulatory action is needed because of changes occurring in the National Airspace System. These changes are designed to provide for the safe and efficient use of the navigable airspace under instrument conditions in the affected areas.

Regulatory Flexibility Certification

In accordance with the Regulatory Flexibility Act of 1980 (5 U.S.C. 605(b)), the Commission certifies that this rule will not, if promulgated, have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities. This rule affects only the licensing and operation of nuclear power plants, independent spent fuel storage facilities, and Transnuclear. The companies that own these plants do not fall within the scope of the definition of "small entities" set forth in the Regulatory Flexibility Act or the Small Business Size Standards set out in regulations issued by the Small Business Administration at 13 CFR Part 121.

Backfit Analysis

The NRC has determined that the backfit rule (10 CFR 50.109 or 10 CFR 72.62) does not apply to this rule because this amendment does not involve any provisions that would impose backfits as defined in the backfit rule. Therefore, a backfit analysis is not required.

[Regulation H; Docket No. R–1064]

Membership of State Banking Institutions in the Federal Reserve System

AGENCY: Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

ACTION: Interim rule with request for public comments.

SUMMARY: The Board is amending Regulation H to implement provisions of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act for state member banks. The Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act authorizes state member banks to control, or hold an interest in, financial subsidiaries which may conduct certain activities that are financial in nature or incidental to a financial activity. The Board has promulgated this rule on an interim basis, effective on March 11, 2000, in order to allow state member banks that meet applicable criteria to acquire control of, or an interest in, a financial subsidiary as soon as possible following the effective date of the relevant provisions of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act.

The Board solicits comments on all aspects of the interim rule and will amend the rule as appropriate in response to comments received.

DATES: This interim rule is effective on March 11, 2000. Comments must be submitted on or before May 12, 2000.

ADDRESSES: Comments, which should refer to Docket No. R–1064, may be mailed to Ms. Jennifer J. Johnson, Secretary, Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, 20th Street and Constitution Avenue, N.W., Washington, DC 20551 or mailed electronically to regs.comments@federalreserve.gov. Comments addressed to Ms. Johnson also may be delivered to Room B–2222 of the Eccles Building between 8:45 a.m. and 5:15 p.m., weekdays or delivered to the guard station in the Eccles Building Courtyard on 20th Street, N.W. (between Constitution Avenue and C Street, N.W.) at any time. Comments will be available for inspection and copying by any member of the public in the Freedom of Information Office, Room MP–500 of the Martin Building, between 9:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. weekdays, except as provided in § 261.8 of the Board's Rules Regarding Availability of Information (12 CFR 261.8).

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

The Board is amending Regulation H (Membership of State Banking Institutions in the Federal Reserve System) to implement section 121 of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act (GLB Act) (Pub. L. 106–102; 113 Stat. 1373–82) as it applies to state member banks. The Comptroller of the Currency has recently issued a rule to implement those parts of section 121 applicable to national banks (65 FR 12905, March 10, 2000). The Board's rule for state member banks parallels that adopted by the Comptroller.

The GLB Act permits qualifying state member banks to control, or hold an interest in, a new type of subsidiary, referred to as a "financial subsidiary." A financial subsidiary may engage in activities that have been determined to be financial in nature or incidental to financial activities under the GLB Act, including general insurance agency activities in any location and travel agency activities. In addition, a financial subsidiary may engage in underwriting, dealing in and making a market in all types of securities—activities previously prohibited for subsidiaries of state member banks by the Glass-Steagall Act. A financial subsidiary also may conduct any activity that the state member bank is permitted to conduct directly.

The GLB Act prohibits financial subsidiaries from engaging in certain types of activities. As a general matter, a financial subsidiary may not engage as principal in underwriting insurance, providing or issuing annuities, real estate development or real estate investment, and merchant banking and insurance company investment activities.

A financial subsidiary is defined as any company controlled by one or more insured depository institutions, but does not include (1) a subsidiary that the state member bank is specifically authorized to hold by the express terms of Federal law (other than section 9 of the Federal Reserve Act), such as an Edge Act subsidiary held under section 25 of the Federal Reserve Act, or (2) a subsidiary that engages only in activities that the parent bank could conduct directly and that are conducted on the same terms and conditions that govern the conduct of the activity by the state member bank.

The interim rule sets forth the criteria that state member banks must meet to own or control a financial subsidiary, the activities that financial subsidiaries may and may not engage in, and the procedures that will be applied to state member banks that own or control a financial subsidiary and that fail to continue to meet the Act's eligibility requirements. The interim rule also establishes a streamlined notice procedure for state member banks to receive the Federal Reserve's approval to acquire a financial subsidiary or engage in a newly authorized financial activity through an existing financial subsidiary.

The authority for a state member bank to own or control a financial subsidiary is in addition to the existing authority of state member banks to establish so-called operations subsidiaries that engage in activities that the parent bank may conduct directly and that are conducted on the same terms and conditions that govern the conduct of these activities by the bank. See 12 CFR 250.141. Thus, state member banks may continue to retain and to establish new operations subsidiaries permitted under state law and the Board's interpretation without complying with the requirements of this subpart applicable to financial subsidiaries.

Description of the Interim Rule

Section 208.71—What Are the Requirements To Invest in or Control a Financial Subsidiary?

Under the GLB Act, a state member bank may control, or hold an interest in, a financial subsidiary only if certain criteria are met. First, the state member bank and each of its depository institution affiliates must be well capitalized and well managed. An institution is well capitalized if it meets or exceeds the capital levels designated as "well capitalized" by the institution's appropriate Federal banking agency under section 38 of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act (12 U.S.C. 1831o). Well managed is defined by reference to the achievement of specific examination ratings.¹ Second, the aggregate consolidated total assets of the bank's financial subsidiaries may not exceed the lesser of 45 percent of the bank's consolidated total assets or $50 billion. This dollar figure will be adjusted according to an indexing mechanism to be established jointly by the Board and the Secretary of the Treasury.

Third, if the state member bank is one of the largest 100 insured banks, the bank must have at least one issue of outstanding eligible debt that is currently rated in one of the three highest investment grade rating categories by a nationally recognized statistical rating organization. Eligible debt refers to unsecured debt that has an initial maturity of more than 360 days. The debt must be issued and outstanding, may not be supported by any form of credit enhancement, and may not be held in whole or in any significant part by affiliates or insiders of the bank or by any other person acting on behalf of or with funds from the bank or an affiliate. If the state member bank is one of the second 50 largest insured banks, the bank may meet this debt rating requirement or an alternative criteria that the Board and the Secretary of the Treasury anticipate establishing by regulation in the near future. The debt rating and alternative criteria do not apply to a bank if its financial subsidiaries do not engage in any newly authorized financial activity as principal.

Finally, the state member bank must obtain the Federal Reserve's approval to acquire control of, or an interest in, the financial subsidiary using the streamlined notice procedures set forth in § 208.76 of the rule. The state member bank also must obtain any necessary approvals from its state supervisory authority.

Section 208.72—What activities may a financial subsidiary conduct?

A financial subsidiary of a state member bank may conduct only three types of activities:

- Activities that have been determined to be financial in nature or incidental to financial activities and permissible for financial holding companies under section 4(k) of the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956. These activities are listed in § 225.86 of the Board's Regulation Y;²
- Activities that the Secretary of the Treasury, in consultation with the Board, determines to be financial in nature or incidental to financial activities and permissible for financial subsidiaries of national banks pursuant to section 5136A(b) of the Revised Statutes of the United States (12 U.S.C. 24a(b)); and
- Activities that the state member bank is permitted to engage in directly, subject to the same terms and conditions that govern the conduct of the activity by the state member bank.

As required by the GLB Act, the rule prohibits a financial subsidiary of a state member bank from engaging as principal in insurance underwriting (except to the extent permitted under state law and the GLB Act), providing or issuing annuities, real estate investment or development (except to the extent expressly authorized by applicable state and Federal law), and merchant banking and insurance company investment activities permitted for financial holding companies under sections 4(k)(4)(H) or (I) of the Bank Holding Company Act.

² On March 10, 2000, the Board adopted amendments to its Regulation Y, which include a new § 225.86 that sets forth the activities that are financial in nature or incidental to financial activities under section 4(k) of the Bank Holding Company Act.

¹ See 12 C.F.R. 208.77(f). A depository institution that has not been examined will be considered well managed if its appropriate Federal banking agency determines that the institution's managerial resources are satisfactory.

Section 208.73—What Additional Restrictions Are Applicable to State Member Banks With Financial Subsidiaries?

The GLB Act requires that a state member bank that owns or controls a financial subsidiary comply with a number of prudential safeguards. Section 208.73 implements these requirements.

For purposes of determining its compliance with all applicable regulatory capital standards, the state member bank must deduct its aggregate outstanding equity investment, including retained earnings, in all financial subsidiaries from its total assets and tangible equity and deduct such amount from its total risk-based capital, and “de-consolidate” the assets and liabilities of the financial subsidiary from those of the bank. The capital deduction must be made equally from Tier 1 and Tier 2 capital. The bank must meet all applicable capital requirements—including the well capitalized requirement of § 208.71 and the capital levels established by the Board under section 38 of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act—after these adjustments.

Subsection (b) requires that the state member bank establish policies and procedures to manage the financial and operational risks arising from its ownership of a financial subsidiary and preserve the bank’s separate corporate identity. In addition, the rule specifies that a financial subsidiary of a state member bank is considered an affiliate (and not a subsidiary) of the bank for purposes of sections 23A and 23B of the Federal Reserve Act, and a subsidiary of a bank holding company (and not a subsidiary of a bank) for purposes of the anti-tying prohibitions of the Bank Holding Company Act Amendments of 1970.

Section 208.74—What Happens if the State Member Bank Fails to Continue To Meet Certain Requirements?

The Board will give notice to a state member bank that owns or controls a financial subsidiary if the Board finds that the state member bank or any of its depository institution affiliates fails to continue to be well capitalized and well managed, that the assets of the bank’s financial subsidiaries exceed 45 percent of the parent bank’s consolidated assets, or that the state member bank has failed to comply with the operational safeguards required by the rule. To assist the Board in enforcing the requirements of the Act, the rule requires a state member bank to notify the Board if the bank learns that any of its depository institution affiliates has ceased to be well capitalized and well managed.

If a state member bank receives a notice of noncompliance from the Board, the bank must execute an agreement with the Board to bring itself back into compliance with the rule’s requirements. Any relevant depository institution affiliate also must execute an agreement with its appropriate Federal banking agency to restore itself to well capitalized and well managed status. The Board and the appropriate Federal banking agency may impose conditions on the direct or indirect activities of the state member bank or depository institution affiliate, respectively, until the institution restores its compliance with rule’s requirements. If the deficiencies are not corrected within 180 days (or such longer period as the Board may permit), the Board may require the state member bank to divest its financial subsidiaries.

If a state member bank that is one of the largest 100 insured banks fails to continue to meet the debt rating requirement or alternative criteria of § 208.71(b), if applicable, the state member bank may not acquire any additional equity capital (including debt qualifying as capital) of the financial subsidiary until the bank once again meets these requirements.

Section 208.75—What Happens if the State Member Bank or Any of Its Insured Depository Institution Affiliates Has Received Less Than a “Satisfactory” CRA Rating?

The GLB Act requires the Board to prohibit a state member bank from acquiring control of a financial subsidiary, or commencing any additional activity or acquiring control of any company through an existing financial subsidiary if the bank or any insured depository institution affiliate has received less than a “satisfactory” rating from its appropriate Federal banking agency at its most recent examination under the Community Reinvestment Act of 1977 (12 U.S.C. 2901 et seq.) (CRA). Section 208.75 implements these prohibitions. The rule clarifies that, if this prohibition is in effect, the financial subsidiary may not acquire control of another company by acquiring substantially all of the assets of the company. These prohibitions are effective until the bank or relevant insured depository institution achieves at least a “satisfactory” rating in its next examination under the CRA. Subsection (b) clarifies that this section does not prohibit a financial subsidiary from engaging in any additional activity, or acquiring control of a company engaged only in activities, that the state member bank is permitted to engage in directly.

The prohibition applies only if the state member bank or any of its insured depository institution affiliates has received a less than “satisfactory” rating in meeting community credit needs at its most recent examination under the CRA. Accordingly, the CRA rating requirement does not apply to special purpose banks that are not subject to CRA examination under the Federal banking agencies’ CRA regulations,³ or to de novo insured depository institutions that have not yet received (and are not the successor of an institution that has received) a CRA rating.

Section 208.76—What Federal Reserve Approvals Are Necessary for Financial Subsidiaries?

The rule establishes a streamlined notice procedure for state member banks that seek to engage in newly authorized financial activities through a financial subsidiary. As a general matter, the notice must provide basic information on the financial subsidiary and its existing and proposed activities and include a certification that the state member bank and its depository institution affiliates meet the requirements of the GLB Act and the rule to own or control a financial subsidiary. If the notice relates to the initial affiliation of the state member bank with a company engaged in insurance activities, the notice also must describe the company’s insurance activities and identify the states where the company holds an insurance license. This additional information will assist the Board in fulfilling its obligations to consult with the relevant state insurance authorities under section 307(c) of the GLB Act.

A state member bank must file a notice with the appropriate Reserve Bank prior to acquiring control of, or an interest in, a financial subsidiary, or engaging in an additional financial activity through an existing financial subsidiary. A notice is not required for a financial subsidiary to engage in an additional activity that the parent state member bank is permitted to conduct directly. A notice will be deemed approved on the fifteenth day after receipt by the appropriate Reserve Bank of an informationally complete submission, unless the notice is disapproved or the bank is notified that additional time to review the notice is needed.

II. Regulatory Flexibility Analysis

The Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 601–612) requires an agency to publish an initial regulatory flexibility analysis with this interim regulation. The interim rule implements the new investment powers granted to state member banks under authority of section 121 of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act. (Pub. L. 106–102; 113 Stat. 1373–82). As the rule authorizes expanded activities by state member banks, no additional burdens are being placed on the banks and, in fact, these new powers should enhance the overall efficiency and flexibility of the banks. The rule does not overlap with other federal rules, and enables state member banks to engage in an expanded range of activities using a streamlined notification procedure. The notice procedure described in this rule is voluntary, and the criteria set forth in the rule to control, or hold an interest in, a financial subsidiary, are those required by the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act.

The initial regulatory flexibility analysis also requires a description of and, where feasible, an estimate of the number of small entities to which the rule will apply. The interim rule will apply to all state member banks (which numbered 1011 as of December 31, 1999), regardless of size, and allows small banking organizations to take advantage of the expanded powers conferred by the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act with minimal additional burdens. The Board specifically seeks comment on the likely burden that the interim rule may impose on banks that seek to control or hold an investment in financial subsidiaries.

III. Administrative Procedure Act

The Board will make the interim rule effective on March 11, 2000, without first reviewing public comments. Pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 553, the Board finds that it is impracticable to review public comments prior to the effective date of the interim rule, and that there is good cause to make the interim rule effective on March 11, 2000. This is because the rule sets forth procedures to implement statutory changes that will become effective on March 11, 2000. The Board is seeking public comment on the interim rule and will amend the rule as appropriate after reviewing the comments.

IV. Paperwork Reduction Act

In accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3506; 5 CFR 1320 Appendix A.1), the Board reviewed the interim rule under the authority delegated to the Board by the Office of Management and Budget.

The OMB control number for this interim rule is 7100–0292. The Federal Reserve may not conduct or sponsor, and an organization is not required to respond to, this information collection unless the Board has displayed a currently valid OMB control number.

The collection of information requirements in this rulemaking are found in 12 CFR 208.76. This information is required to evidence compliance with section 121 of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act. The respondents are current and future state member banks.

The notice cited in 12 CFR 225.76 provides that a state member bank may control, or hold an interest in, a financial subsidiary, or engage in an additional financial activity through an existing financial subsidiary, by filing a single written declaration with the appropriate Federal Reserve Bank. The notice must identify the financial subsidiary and its activities and certify that the bank meets the relevant statutory criteria to own or control a financial subsidiary. In addition, if the notice reflects the initial affiliation of a bank with a company engaged in permissible insurance activities, information regarding the nature, scope, and authority of such activities must be provided. There will be no reporting form for this information collection. The agency form number for this declaration will be the FR 4017. The Board estimates that approximately 100 state member banks will file this notice during the first year and that it will take an average of 1 hour to complete this notice. This would result in an estimated annual burden of 100 hours. Based on a rate of $20 per hour, the annual cost to the public for this information collection is estimated to be $2,000.

A bank may request confidentiality for the information contained in these information collections pursuant to section (b)(4) and (b)(6) of the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. 552(b)(4) and (b)(6)).

Comments are invited on: (1) whether the collections of information are necessary for the proper performance of the Federal Reserve's functions, including whether the information has practical utility; (2) the accuracy of the Federal Reserve's estimate of the burden of the information collections, including the cost of compliance; (3) ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and (4) ways to minimize the burden of information collection on respondents, including through the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology. Comments on the collections of information should be sent to the Office of Management and Budget, Paperwork Reduction Project, Washington, DC 20503, with copies of such comments to be sent to Mary M. West, Federal Reserve Clearance Officer, Mail Stop 97, Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, Washington, DC 20551.

V. Solicitation of Comments Regarding the Use of "Plain Language"

Section 722 of the GLB Act requires the Board to use "plain language" in all proposed and final rules published after January 1, 2000. The Board invites comments about how to make the interim rule easier to understand, including answers to the following questions:

(1) Is the material organized in an effective manner? If not, how could the material be better organized?

(2) Are the terms of the rule clearly stated? If not, how could the terms be more clearly stated?

(3) Does the rule contain technical language or jargon that is unclear? If not, which language requires clarification?

(4) Would a different format (with respect to the grouping and order of sections and use of headings) make the rule easier to understand? If so, what changes to the format would make the rule easier to understand?

(5) Would increasing the number of sections (and making each section shorter) clarify the rule? If so, which portions of the rule should be changed in this respect?

(6) What additional changes would make the rule easier to understand?

Subpart G—Financial Subsidiaries of State Member Banks

§ 208.71 What are the requirements to invest in or control a financial subsidiary?

(a) In general. A state member bank may control, or hold an interest in, a financial subsidiary only if:

(1) The state member bank and each depository institution affiliate of the state member bank are well capitalized and well managed;

(2) The aggregate consolidated total assets of all financial subsidiaries of the state member bank do not exceed the lesser of:

(i) 45 percent of the consolidated total assets of the parent bank; or

(ii) $50,000,000,000, which dollar amount shall be adjusted according to an indexing mechanism jointly established by the Board and the Secretary of the Treasury;

(3) The state member bank, if it is one of the largest 100 insured banks (based on consolidated total assets of the bank as of the end of each calendar year), meets the debt rating or alternative requirement of paragraph (b) of this section, if applicable; and

(4) The Board or the appropriate Reserve Bank has approved the bank to acquire the interest in or control the financial subsidiary under § 208.76.

(b) Debt rating or alternative requirement for 100 largest insured banks—

(1) General. A state member bank meets the debt rating or alternative requirement of this paragraph (b) if:

(i) The bank has at least one issue of outstanding eligible debt that is currently rated in one of the three highest investment grade rating categories by a nationally recognized statistical rating organization; or

(ii) If the bank is one of the second 50 largest insured banks (based on consolidated total assets of the bank as of the end of each calendar year), the bank satisfies any alternative criteria jointly established by the Board and the Secretary of the Treasury.

(2) Financial subsidiaries engaged only in financial agency activities. This paragraph (b) does not apply to a state member bank if the financial subsidiaries of the bank engage in financial activities described in § 208.72(a)(1) and (2) only in an agency capacity.

§ 208.72 What activities may a financial subsidiary conduct?

(a) Authorized activities. A financial subsidiary may engage in only the following activities:

(1) Any activity listed in § 225.86 of the Board’s Regulation Y (12 CFR 225.86);

(2) Any activity that has been determined to be financial in nature or incidental to a financial activity by the Secretary of the Treasury, in consultation with the Board, pursuant to Section 5136A(b) of the Revised Statutes of the United States (12 U.S.C. 24a(b)); and

(3) Any activity that the state member bank is permitted to engage in directly (subject to the same terms and conditions that govern the conduct of the activity by the state member bank).

(b) Impermissible activities. Notwithstanding paragraph (a) of this section, a financial subsidiary may not engage as principal in the following activities:

(1) Insuring, guaranteeing, or indemnifying against loss, harm, damage, illness, disability or death (except to the extent permitted under applicable state law and sections 302 or 303(c) of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act (Pub. L. 106-102, 113 Stat. 1407-1409, 15 U.S.C. 6712 or 6713(c)), or providing or issuing annuities the income of which is subject to tax treatment under section 72 of the Internal Revenue Code (26 U.S.C. 72);

(2) Real estate development or real estate investment, unless otherwise expressly authorized by applicable state and Federal law; and

(3) Any activity permitted for financial holding companies by section

4(k)(4)(H) or (I) of the Bank Holding Company Act (12 U.S.C. 1843(k)(4)(H) and (I)).

§ 208.73 What additional provisions are applicable to state member banks with financial subsidiaries?

(a) Capital deduction.

(1) Capital deduction required. For purposes of determining compliance with applicable regulatory capital standards (including the well capitalized standard of § 208.71(a)(1)), a state member bank that controls or holds an interest in a financial subsidiary must:

(i) Deduct the aggregate amount of the bank’s outstanding equity investment, including retained earnings, in all financial subsidiaries from its total assets and tangible equity and deduct such investment from its total risk-based capital (this deduction shall be made equally from Tier 1 and Tier 2 capital); and

(ii) Not consolidate the assets and liabilities of any financial subsidiary with those of the bank.

(2) Financial statement disclosure of capital deduction. Any published financial statement of a state member bank that controls or holds an interest in a financial subsidiary must, in addition to providing information prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, separately present financial information for the bank reflecting the capital deduction and adjustments required by paragraph (a)(1) of this section.

(b) Safeguards for the bank. A state member bank that establishes, controls or holds an interest in a financial subsidiary must:

(1) Establish procedures for identifying and managing financial and operational risks within the state member bank and the financial subsidiary that adequately protect the state member bank from such risks; and

(2) Establish reasonable policies and procedures to preserve the separate corporate identity and limited liability of the state member bank and the financial subsidiaries of the state member bank.

(c) Application of sections 23A and 23B of the Federal Reserve Act. For purposes of sections 23A and 23B of the Federal Reserve Act (12 U.S.C. 371c, 371c-1):

(1) A financial subsidiary of a state member bank shall be deemed an affiliate, and not a subsidiary, of the bank;

(2) The restrictions contained in section 23A(a)(1)(A) of section 23A shall not apply with respect to covered transactions between the bank and any individual financial subsidiary of the bank;

(3) The bank's investment in a financial subsidiary shall not include retained earnings of the financial subsidiary;

(4) Any purchase of, or investment in, the securities of a financial subsidiary by an affiliate of the bank will be considered to be a purchase of, or investment in, such securities by the bank; and

(5) Any extension of credit by an affiliate of the bank to a financial subsidiary of the bank will be considered to be an extension of credit by the bank to the financial subsidiary if the Board determines that such treatment is necessary or appropriate to prevent evasions of the Federal Reserve Act and the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act.

(d) Application of anti-tying prohibitions. A financial subsidiary of a state member bank shall be deemed a subsidiary of a bank holding company and not a subsidiary of the bank for purposes of the anti-tying prohibitions of section 106 of the Bank Holding Company Act Amendments of 1970 (12 U.S.C. 1971 et seq.).

§ 208.74 What happens if the state member bank fails to continue to meet certain requirements?

(a) Qualifications and safeguards. The following procedures apply to a state member bank that controls or holds an interest in a financial subsidiary.

(1) Notice by Board. If the Board finds that a state member bank or any of its depository institution affiliates fails to continue to be well capitalized and well managed or comply with the asset limitation set forth in § 208.71(a)(2) or the safeguards set forth in § 208.73(b), the Board will notify the state member bank in writing and identify the areas of noncompliance.

(2) Notification by state member bank. A state member bank must promptly notify the Board if the bank becomes aware that any depository institution affiliate of the bank has ceased to be well capitalized and well managed.

(3) Execution of agreement. Within 45 days after receiving a notice under paragraph (a)(1) of this section, or such additional period of time as the Board may permit, the:

(i) State member bank must execute an agreement acceptable to the Board to comply with all applicable capital, management, asset and safeguard requirements; and

(ii) Any relevant depository institution affiliate of the state member bank must execute an agreement acceptable to its appropriate Federal banking agency to comply with all applicable capital and management requirements.

(4) Imposition of limits. Until the Board determines that the conditions described in the notice under paragraph (a)(1) of this section are corrected:

(i) The Board may impose any limitations on the conduct or activities of the state member bank or any subsidiary of the bank as the Board determines to be appropriate under the circumstances and consistent with the purposes of section 121 of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act (12 U.S.C. 24a, 335, 371c, and 1971), including requiring the Board's prior approval for any financial subsidiary of the bank to acquire any company or engage in any additional activity; and

(ii) The appropriate Federal banking agency for any relevant depository institution affiliate may impose any limitations on the conduct or activities of the depository institution or any subsidiary of that institution as the agency determines to be appropriate under the circumstances and consistent with the purposes of section 121 of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act (12 U.S.C. 24a, 335, 371c, and 1971).

(5) Divestiture. The Board may require a state member bank to divest control of any financial subsidiary if the conditions described in a notice under paragraph (a)(1) of this section are not corrected within 180 days of receipt of the notice or such additional period of time as the Board may permit. Any divestiture must be completed in accordance with any terms and conditions established by the Board.

(6) Consultation. The Board will consult with all relevant Federal and state regulatory authorities in taking any action under this subsection.

(b) Debt rating or alternative requirement. If a state member bank does not continue to meet any applicable debt rating or alternative requirement of § 208.71(b), the bank may not, directly or through a subsidiary, purchase or acquire any additional equity capital of any financial subsidiary until the bank restores its compliance with the requirements of that section. For purposes of this paragraph, the term "equity capital" includes, in addition to any equity investment, any debt instrument issued by the financial subsidiary if the instrument qualifies as capital of the subsidiary under federal or state law, regulation or interpretation applicable to the subsidiary.

§ 208.75 What happens if the state member bank or any of its insured depository institution affiliates has received less than a "satisfactory" CRA rating?

(a) Limits on establishment of financial subsidiaries and expansion of existing financial subsidiaries. If a state member bank, or any of its insured depository institution affiliates, has received less than a "satisfactory" rating in meeting community credit needs in its most recent examination under the Community Reinvestment Act of 1977 (12 U.S.C. 2901 et seq.):

(1) The state member bank may not, directly or indirectly, acquire control of any financial subsidiary; and

(2) Any financial subsidiary controlled by the state member bank may not commence any additional activity or acquire control, including all or substantially all of the assets, of any company.

(b) Exception for certain activities. The prohibition in paragraph (a)(2) of this section does not apply to any activity, or to the acquisition of control of any company that is engaged only in activities, that the state member bank is permitted to conduct directly and that are conducted on the same terms and conditions that govern the conduct of the activity by the state member bank.

(c) Duration of prohibitions. The prohibitions described in paragraph (a) of this section shall continue in effect until such time as the state member bank and each insured depository institution affiliate of the state member bank has achieved at least a "satisfactory" rating in meeting community credit needs in its most recent examination under the Community Reinvestment Act.

§ 208.76 What Federal Reserve approvals are necessary for financial subsidiaries?

(a) Notice requirements. (1) A state member bank may not acquire control of, or an interest in, a financial subsidiary unless it files a notice (in letter form, with enclosures) with the appropriate Reserve Bank.

(2) A state member bank may not engage in any additional activity pursuant to § 208.72(a)(1) or (2) through an existing financial subsidiary unless the state member bank files a notice (in letter form, with enclosures) with the appropriate Reserve Bank.

(b) Contents of notice. Any notice required by paragraph (a) of this section must:

(1) In the case of a notice filed under paragraph (a)(1) of this section, describe the transaction(s) through which the bank proposes to acquire control of or an interest in the financial subsidiary;

(2) Provide the name and head office address of the subsidiary;

(3) Provide a description of the current and proposed activities of the financial subsidiary and the specific authority permitting each activity;

(4) Certify that the bank and each of its depository institution affiliates, was well capitalized at the close of the previous calendar quarter, and remains well capitalized as of the date the bank files its notice;

(5) Certify that the bank and each of its depository institution affiliates is well managed as of the date the bank files its notice;

(6) Certify that the bank meets the debt rating or alternative requirement of § 208.71(b), if applicable; and

(7) Certify that the bank and its financial subsidiaries are in compliance with the asset limit set forth in § 208.71(a)(3) both before the proposal and on a pro forma basis.

(c) Insurance activities. (1) If a notice filed under paragraph (a) of this section relates to the initial affiliation of the bank with a company engaged in insurance activities, the notice must describe the type of insurance activity that the company is engaged in or plans to conduct and identify each state where the company holds an insurance license and the state insurance regulatory authority that issued the license.

(2) The appropriate Reserve Bank will send a copy of any notice described in this subsection to the appropriate state insurance regulatory authorities and provide such authorities with an opportunity to comment on the proposal.

(d) Approval procedures. A notice filed with the appropriate Reserve Bank will be deemed approved on the fifteenth day after receipt of a complete notice by the appropriate Reserve Bank, unless prior to that date the Board or the appropriate Reserve Bank notifies the bank that the notice is approved, that the notice will require additional review, or that the bank does not meet the requirements of this subpart.

§ 208.77 Definitions.

The following definitions shall apply to this subpart:

(a) Affiliate, Company, Control, and Subsidiary. The terms “affiliate”, “company”, “control”, and “subsidiary” have the meanings given those terms in section 2 of the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956 (12 U.S.C. 1841).

(b) Appropriate Federal Banking Agency, Depository Institution, Insured Bank and Insured Depository Institution. The terms “appropriate Federal banking agency”, “depository institution”, “insured bank” and “insured depository institution” have the meanings given those terms in section 3 of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act (12 U.S.C. 1813).

(c) Eligible Debt. The term “eligible debt” means unsecured debt with an initial maturity of more than 360 days that:

(1) Is not supported by any form of credit enhancement, including a guarantee or standby letter of credit; and

(2) Is not held in whole or in any significant part by any affiliate, officer, director, principal shareholder, or employee of the bank or any other person acting on behalf of or with funds from the bank or an affiliate of the bank.

(d) Financial Subsidiary. The term “financial subsidiary” means any company that is controlled by one or more insured depository institutions other than:

(1) A subsidiary that only engages in activities that the state member bank is permitted to engage in directly and that are conducted on the same terms and conditions that govern the conduct of the activities by the state member bank; or

(2) A subsidiary that the state member bank is specifically authorized by the express terms of a Federal statute (other than section 9 of the Federal Reserve Act (12 U.S.C. 321 et seq.)), and not by implication or interpretation, to control, such as by section 25 or 25A of the Federal Reserve Act (12 U.S.C. 601–604a or 12 U.S.C. 611–631) or the Bank Service Company Act (12 U.S.C. 1861 et seq.).

(e) Well Capitalized. The term “well capitalized” has the meaning given the term in section 38 of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act (12 U.S.C. 1831.).

(f) Well Managed. The term “well managed” means:

(1) Unless otherwise determined in writing by the appropriate Federal banking agency, the institution has received a composite rating of 1 or 2 under the Uniform Financial Institutions Rating System (or an equivalent rating under an equivalent rating system) in connection with its most recent examination or subsequent review and at least a rating of 2 for management (if such rating is given); or

(2) In the case of any depository institution that has not been examined by its appropriate Federal banking agency, the existence and use of managerial resources that the appropriate Federal banking agency determines are satisfactory.

By order of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, March 10, 2000.

Robert deV. Frierson,

Associate Secretary of the Board.
