SUBJECT

Deadline Extended for Comment on Potential Longer-term Direction of the Payments System Risk Policy

DETAILS

The Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System has extended the deadline for its request for comment on the potential longer-term direction of the payments system risk policy. The longer-term policy options include the following:

- 1) Lowering single-day net debit cap levels to approximately the current two-week average cap levels and eliminating the two-week average net debit cap;
- 2) Implementing a two-tiered pricing regime for daylight overdrafts such that institutions pledging collateral to the Reserve Banks pay a lower fee on their collateralized daylight overdrafts than on their uncollateralized daylight overdrafts; and
- 3) Monitoring in real time all payments with settlement-day finality and rejecting those payments that would cause an institution to exceed its net debit cap or daylight overdraft capacity level.

The Board must receive comments by November 16, 2001. Please address comments to Jennifer J. Johnson, Secretary, Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, 20th Street and C Streets, N.W., Washington, DC 20551. Also, you may mail comments electronically to regs.comments@federalreserve.gov. All comments should refer to Docket No. R-1111.
