MEDIA ADVISORY

New York Fed to Host Conference on U.S.-EU Economic Relations

April 17, 2013

The conference will feature three panel discussions, as well as a keynote address from European Commission Vice-President Olli Rehn. New York Fed President William Dudley and European Union Ambassador to the United States João Vale de Almeida will deliver opening remarks.

Media Registration:
Chatham House Rules will be in effect for all but the keynote address at lunch; media may report on comments made during the event, but may not attribute remarks to individuals or organizations. Vice-President Olli Rehn’s luncheon speech will be on-the-record. To register, please contact Eric Pajonk at the New York Fed, eric.pajonk@ny.frb.org or +1 (212) 720-1735.

Conference Agenda:
The full agenda, including information on panel participants, is available on the event webpage: Transatlantic Economic Interdependence and Policy Challenges

Contact:
Eric Pajonk
212-720-1735
Eric.pajonk@ny.frb.org