MEDIA ADVISORY

New York Fed to Launch New York Innovation Center on November 29

November 16, 2021

NEW YORK—On Monday, November 29, the New York Fed will launch the New York Innovation Center (NYIC), a strategic partnership with the Bank for International Settlements (BIS) Innovation Hub.

To mark the inauguration of the NYIC, the New York Fed will host a public event focused on innovation in the central bank community, the value of the strategic partnership, and the opportunity areas for the Center. Featured speakers at this virtual forum include:

- John C. Williams, President and CEO, New York Fed
- The Honorable Jerome H. Powell, Chair, Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System
- Agustín Carstens, General Manager, BIS
- Naureen Hassan, First Vice President, New York Fed
- Benoit Coeure, Head of the BIS Innovation Hub
- Per von Zelowitz, Director of the New York Innovation Center
- Raj Seshadri, President of Data and Services, Mastercard
- Amy Nauiokas, Founder and CEO, Anthemis

The NYIC will be housed at the New York Fed and will collaborate with the Federal Reserve System, the BIS Innovation Hub Centers, and public and private sector experts to explore the development of public goods that enhance the functioning of the global financial system.

Virtual Event: Introducing the New York Innovation Center

Date: November 29, 2021
Time: 3:00 p.m. EST
Location: Webex

This event is open to press and on the record. Please see the event page to register. For media inquiries, contact Brian Manning at the New York Fed: brian.manning@ny.frb.org.

To subscribe to e-mail alerts for the New York Innovation Center, click here.

Contact
Brian Manning
(212) 720-6143
brian.manning@ny.frb.org