My dear Mr. Peple:

On my return from Washington to-day I find your letter of March 29th, in regard to the budget matter. You are quite right in your surmise that I was unable to discuss this at the conference on account of the pressure on our time to clean up the program, but your letter crossed mine asking for suggestions, and I will be glad to have an early reply.

Very truly yours,

Governor.

Dear Mr. Peple:

In connection with budget matters on which we have had some correspondence, I am anxious to get suggestions from you as to some one to do some work in South Carolina.

The work required will not be very onerous, but it will need the services of a man who can develop an organization for the purpose of some little educational and publicity work to bring about a better understanding of this subject. It will be necessary to raise a small amount of money, and, generally, to carry out the program which will be laid out by the organization at the New York Headquarters.

It needs the services of a man who is interested in the economic aspects of the Government's finance, and who is sufficiently interested in the subject to be willing to devote some time and energy to bringing about an improvement. It would be preferable to have some one who would be capable of making an occasional address on this subject, and who would be willing himself to study and understand it by an examination of literature which will later be furnished.

I will greatly appreciate any help you can give me in this connection, by suggesting anyone you think could undertake this work successfully.

Faithfully yours,

Charles A. Peple, Esq.,
Deputy Governor, Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond,
