

ECONOMIC AND CREDIT OUTLOOK

by KARL R. BOPP
Vice President, Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia

before

THE WASHINGTON FORUM FOR BANK EXECUTIVES

sponsored by

The District of Columbia Bankers Association

in cooperation with

Georgetown University, Division of Business Administration

Georgetown University Campus, Washington, D. C.

November 4, 1955

-----

Pleasure to be here, but I feel like

Good Irish carpenter

- but wood always missing

he had an irrepressible desire to make things of wood

He confessed a number of times

but always fell again

Finally, he really promised to reform

Priest asked him:

Have you ever tried to make a Novena?

Instinctively he replied:

No, Father, but if you have the plans, I can get you the wood.

So it goes with those of us who try to gaze into the crystal ball.

When we miss, we threaten never to do it again.