

FEDERAL RESERVE PIONEERS BANQUET

Benjamin Franklin Hotel, Philadelphia, Pa.

Monday, November 4, 1968

FEDERAL RESERVE PIONEERS

23rd Annual Banquet

Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia

Benjamin Franklin Hotel

Ninth and Chestnut Streets

November 4, 1968

6.30 P.M.

Lancers

10 Retired Officers / living
+ 2 Williams

10/22 Junior officers

including staff folders economies
law etc

7/10 vice Presidents

1 1st V.P.

1 Pres

CHARLES V. AUSTIN

Mr. Austin entered our employ as a "Page" in the "Pages Department" on September 12, 1918 at the age of fourteen.

On January 1, 1919 he was transferred to Purchasing Department as a "Page."

He was transferred to the Transit (now Collections) Department as a "Clerk," on August 30, 1920. In 1921 he was made a Junior Clerk; in 1922, an Intermediate Clerk; and in 1923, Section Head and then Senior Clerk.

During 1933 he worked temporarily in the Liquidation Department as Senior Clerk.

Then in May 1934 he was transferred to the Analysis (Accounting) Department.* as Senior Clerk, and then to Analysis Clerk in 1936.

In 1942 he became an Accounting Clerk A in the Accounting Department until 1946 when he became Expense Clerk.

Following that he was made Supervisor of the Expense Unit of the Accounting Department in 1947.

Then on November 21, 1966 he was transferred to the Bank Examination Department to the position of Assistant Bank Examiner.

Mr. Austin will begin service retirement on November 30, 1968 and at that time will have completed fifty years, two months, and eighteen days.

cheerful despite adequate reason for ^{a frown} (being grouchy) illness at home.

Youthful & vigorous outlook in second career in bank exam.

* later merged into the Accounting Department

10/28/68

216

1980

Something constructive to do

MARIAN E. BOYD (MRS.)

next Friday

Mrs. Boyd came to the Bank on November 15, 1918 at the age of fourteen.

Her first position was as "Clerk" in the Transit (Collections) Department

In 1920 she was made "Section Head"; then in 1925, Senior Clerk.

She was made an "Incoming Mail Clerk" in 1947 which title was later changed to Receiving Clerk.

Then in 1956 she was promoted to Section Head-Receiving in the Department of Collections. She is presently serving in this position.

On November 15, 1968, Marian will celebrate her fiftieth anniversary at the Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia.

She plans to retire on service retirement, February 28, 1969.

Janice saw Marian first

Drasel

Is fondly remembered by many Phil bank Presidents and vice presidents

Art class - inspiration to all of us.

10/28/68

WILLIAM J. KELLY

Appointed November 13, 1914, at the age of 14 as "Office Boy" in the "Bookkeeping Department". *

On January 1, 1917 he was promoted to "Bookkeeper."

He was made "Ledger Clerk" on July 1, 1919.

In 1921 he became "General Clerk" in the Bookkeeping-General Ledger Department.

On January 1, 1936 he was made "Special Clerk" of the Accounting Department. and later that year was made "Expense Clerk".

On February 1, 1944 he became Assistant Head of the Accounting Department and held this position until he left on November 30, 1964 on Special Service Retirement. He had at this time completed fifty years and seventeen days.

authority on expense actg B) & consulted him!
athletic baseball, bowling met wife at Bante

*later merged into the Accounting Department

10/28/68

Birthday today

THOMAS F. MAGUIRE

On October 7, 1918, Mr. Maguire entered our employ as a "Page" in the Pages Department at the age of fourteen.

In 1921 he became a Junior Clerk in our Transit (Collections) Department. From that time on until 1928 he held various positions such as Intermediate Clerk, Section Head, General Clerk, Senior Clerk.

-Bank Ledger

Then in June of 1929 he was transferred to the Bookkeeping/Department* as General Clerk, Senior Clerk and Availability Clerk.

In 1942 he became Accounting Clerk B and then Accounting Clerk A in the Accounting Department up until October 1947, at which time he was made Section Head (Cash Mail).

Then in August of '49, he was named General Service Clerk until he became Supervisor Reconciliation, in the Accounting Department in July of 1954.

On November 6, 1967 he transferred to the Bank Examination Department at which time he became an Assistant Bank Examiner.

Mr. Maguire celebrated his fiftieth year with the Bank on October 7, 1968.

*dedicated - and witty!
met wife at Bank
Philly rooter*