RETURN OF DEPOSITS

To All Banks in District No. 8:

Under authority conferred upon him by President's proclamation declaring bank holiday, Secretary of Treasury has issued the following regulation: "All banking institutions may upon request return intact and without restriction all cash, checks, and other items delivered for deposit or collection which were received after the last closing of business hours and have not been entered on the books of such banking institution."

Respectfully,

WM. McC. MARTIN,
Governor.
To Member and Nonmember Clearing Banks in District No. 8:
(For the information of other banks)

The Secretary of the Treasury has issued a regulation that all banking institutions may continue in accordance with the usual practice to cash checks drawn on the Treasurer of the United States provided that no gold or gold certificates shall be paid out.

In keeping with this regulation, the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis and its branches will accept from member and nonmember clearing banks in the Eighth Federal Reserve District on special deposit, checks drawn on the Treasurer of the United States and the funds will be maintained in a separate account for payment of currency or coin other than gold coin or gold certificates.

Respectfully,

WM. McC. MARTIN,
Governor.

To All Banks in District No. 8:

Under authority conferred upon him by President's proclamation declaring bank holiday, Secretary of Treasury has issued following regulations: "Deposits heretofore received by any banking institution pursuant to agreement or legislative authority providing for segregation and for repayment without restriction may be paid on demand. Any banking institution which was lawfully engaged in the business of receiving deposits prior to March 6, 1933, may create special trust accounts for the receipt of new deposits which shall be subject to withdrawal on demand without any restriction or limitation and shall be kept separately in cash or on deposit in Federal reserve banks or invested in obligations of the United States. Federal reserve banks may open special accounts on their books for their member banks and temporarily for nonmember banks and may receive in such special accounts the proceeds of new deposits received by such banking institutions. In making deposits with the Federal reserve bank pursuant to this regulation the depositing bank shall in the case of each deposit indicate to the Federal reserve bank by symbol or otherwise that the funds so deposited represent new deposits made under this regulation. Upon receipt of such deposits such Federal reserve bank shall credit the same in the special account of the depositing bank herein provided for and shall hold the same solely for repayment to such bank. Federal reserve banks shall permit the withdrawal of any part or all of such new deposits by the depositing bank without restriction provided that the depositing bank shall in such order or request for withdrawal indicate to the Federal reserve bank by symbol or otherwise that such withdrawal is to be made from such special account: provided, however, that no banking institution shall pay out or permit the withdrawal of any gold or gold certificates.

Respectfully,
