To All Banking Institutions in District No. 8:

Will you please give the widest publicity possible to the order of the Secretary of the Treasury reprinted below and in those cases where necessary call it to the attention by telegraph or telephone to each of your customers whom you have any reason to believe holds any gold coin, gold bullion or gold certificates required to be delivered under the order.

Respectfully,

WM. McC. MARTIN,

Governor.
ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY — REQUIRING THE DELIVERY OF GOLD COIN, GOLD BULLION, AND GOLD CERTIFICATES TO THE TREASURER OF THE UNITED STATES

WHEREAS Section 11 of the Federal Reserve Act of December 23, 1913, as amended by Section 3 of the Act of March 9, 1933, entitled “An act to provide relief in the existing national emergency in banking, and for other purposes”, provides in subsection (N) as follows:

“Whenever in the judgment of the Secretary of the Treasury such action is necessary to protect the currency system of the United States, the Secretary of the Treasury, in his discretion, may require any or all individuals, partnerships, associations and corporations, or under authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, shall pay therefor an equivalent amount of any other form of coin or currency coined or issued under the laws of the United States. The Secretary of the Treasury shall pay all costs of the transportation of such gold bullion, gold certificates, coin, or currency, including the cost of insurance, protection, and such other incidental costs as may be reasonably necessary. Any individual, partnership, association, or corporation failing to comply with any requirement of the Secretary of the Treasury made under this subsection shall be subject to a penalty equal to twice the value of the gold or gold certificates in respect of which such failure occurred, and such penalty may be collected by the Secretary of the Treasury by suit or otherwise”.

And, whereas in my judgment such action is necessary to protect the currency system of the United States; now, therefore, I, Henry Morgenthau, Jr., Acting Secretary of the Treasury, do hereby require every person subject to the jurisdiction of the United States any or all gold coin, gold bullion, and gold certificates owned by such individuals, partnerships, associations and corporations. Upon receipt of such gold coin, gold bullion or gold certificates, the Secretary of the Treasury shall pay therefor an equivalent amount of any other form of coin or currency coined or issued under the laws of the United States. The Secretary of the Treasury shall pay all costs of the transportation of such gold bullion, gold certificates, coin, or currency, including the cost of insurance, protection, and such other incidental costs as may be reasonably necessary. Any individual, partnership, association, or corporation failing to comply with any requirement of the Secretary of the Treasury made under this subsection shall be subject to a penalty equal to twice the value of the gold or gold certificates in respect of which such failure occurred, and such penalty may be collected by the Secretary of the Treasury by suit or otherwise:

E. Gold bullion and foreign gold coin now situated in the Philippine Islands, American Samoa, Guam, Hawaii, the Panama Canal Zone, Puerto Rico, or the Virgin Islands of the United States, owned by a person not domiciled or doing business in the continental United States.

Section 2. Delivery. The gold coin, gold bullion, and gold certificates herein required to be paid and delivered to the Treasurer of the United States shall be delivered by placing the same forthwith in the custody of a Federal reserve bank or branch bank member of the Federal Reserve System for the account of the United States and by forwarding confirmation that the gold coin, gold bullion, and gold certificates have been placed in custody for the account of the United States and are held subject to the order of the Treasurer of the United States, signed by such bank and the person making the delivery (or the authorized agent of such person) to the Treasurer of the United States, Washington, D. C., in a postage prepaid envelope bearing a postmark dated prior to midnight of the day the gold coin, gold bullion, and gold certificates are so placed in custody.

Section 3. Payment and Reimbursement of costs. Upon receipt of the confirmation signed and delivered as required under Section 2, the Secretary of the Treasury will pay for the gold coin, gold bullion, and gold certificates placed in custody for the account of the United States in accordance with Section 2, an equivalent amount of any form of coin or currency coined or issued under the laws of the United States designated by the Secretary of the Treasury. The Secretary of the Treasury will pay all costs of the transportation of such gold coin, gold bullion, and gold certificates to the Federal reserve bank or branch or bank member of the Federal Reserve System in the city or town nearest to the place where such gold coin, gold bullion, and gold certificates are now situated, including the cost of insurance, protection, and such other incidental costs as may be reasonably necessary. Persons desiring reimbursement for such costs actually incurred shall submit to the Secretary of the Treasury a voucher form which may be obtained by writing to the Treasurer of the United States, Washington, D. C.

Section 4. Definitions. As used in this order, the term “person” means any individual, partnership, association, or corporation; the term “United States” means the United States and any place subject to the jurisdiction thereof; the term “continental United States” means the states of the United States, the District of Columbia, and the Territory of Alaska; the term “gold coin” means any coin containing gold, including foreign gold coin; and the term “gold bullion” means any gold which has been put through a process of smelting or refining that is in such form that its value depends upon the gold content and not upon the form, but does not include gold coin or metals containing less than five parts per thousand of fine gold.

Section 5. Any individual, partnership, association or corporation failing to comply with any requirement hereof or of any rules or regulations issued by the Secretary of the Treasury hereunder shall be subject to the penalty provided in Section 11(N) of the Federal Reserve Act, as amended.

This order may be modified or revoked at any time.

H. MORGENTHAU, JR.
Acting Secretary of the Treasury.

The White House
December 28, 1933.

Approved: FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT.
