DEAR SIR:

Your attention is called to the following self-explanatory paragraphs from the April issue of the Federal Reserve Bulletin:

"The Federal Reserve Board will publish shortly, primarily for its use and that of Federal Reserve Banks, an index-digest of the Federal Reserve Bulletin, prepared by Mr. C. S. Hamlin, one of its members. The digest covers the first six volumes of the Bulletin, from the years 1915 to 1920, inclusive, and contains an abstract of all published decisions and rulings of the Federal Reserve Board and of the other matter contained in the Bulletin.

"The Board will print a sufficient number of copies to supply the demand of banks and others who may desire to purchase it.

"The price will be $2 per volume, bound in cloth. SUBSCRIPTIONS SHOULD BE ADDRESSED TO THE FEDERAL RESERVE BOARD, WASHINGTON. As the edition is to be a limited one, those desiring copies should send in their orders promptly."

Respectfully,

WILLIAM McC. MARTIN,
Federal Reserve Agent.
